148 POLICEMEN HOLD LINES AT VALENTINO'S BIER

Crowds Continue to Throng Broadway in Front of Undertaker's Where Body
Lies in State.

HONOR GUARD OF 10 IN FASCIST UNIFORM

Mayor Walker and Will Hays Among Pallbearers Named for Funeral at St.
Malachi's Monday.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Great crowds continued to throng Broadway in front of the undertaker's establishment where the body of Rudolph Valentino, noted motion picture star, lies in state. The crowds today were more orderly than yesterday's.

One hundred and twelve patrolmen, 20 mounted policemen, 12 sergeants and four lieutenants were necessary to keep the crowd in line.

The interest which unaccounted thousands have shown in Valentino today led the dead actor's manager, S. George Ullman, to extend the time in which the body will lie in state to midnight Sunday.

Tentative plans for the funeral Monday were announced. Following the hearse, which will proceed down Broadway from the funeral establishment at Sixty-sixth street, 500 automobiles will form a cortege bearing theatrical people and friends of the dead star.

The procession will go to St. Malachi's Church, in West Forty-ninth street, where a high requiem mass will be celebrated at 11 a. m.

Flowers Poured Into Place.
Flowers poured into the undertaker's today. They bore the names of the actor's friends, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Irving Berlin, Morris Gest, Lola Pierce, former partner of Valentino in his early dancing days; Samuel Goldwyn, moving picture magnate; Marilyn Miller and Joseph M. Schenck and his wife, Norma Talmadge.

At midnight last night, when the doors were closed, 10 men wearing the black shirts of the Italian Fascisti arrived and two of them went on guard, the others arranging to relieve them at intervals. A huge wreath also arrived labeled "From Benito Mussolini."

The place of burial is yet to be decided. Valentino's brother, Alberto Guglielmi, is on the way from France. Pola Negri, Polish film star, who announced some time ago that she expected to marry Valentino, and Ullman, his manager, desire that he be buried in Hollywood. Miss Negri hopes to reach New York from Los Angeles in time for the funeral.

Among the honorary pallbearers
Monday will be Mayor Walker, Will Hays, Adolph Zukor, Marcus Loew and Hiram Abrams.

Four Hiram as Crowd Flies Past Bier 100 a Minute.
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Fighting for a glimpse of Rudolph Valentino's body, 15,000 men and women stormed the Campbell Building at 1970 Broadway yesterday, precipitating a riot. Men and women claved each other's faces and tore off hats and clothing.
Traffic was stopped in Broadway between Sixty-sixth and Sixty-seventh streets. Women screamed and fainted. An emergency hospital was set up in the undertaking establishment and injured and fainting women were carried in by police.

Reserves were called from the West Sixty-eighth Street Station under Acting Captain John Ham-mill, who declared the riot the worst in his 20 years of experience.
After the first outbreak was quelled the pavements were a litter of broken umbrellas, straw hats, articles of clothing and bags.
Nineteen shoes, none marked, lay in the street.

100 a Minute Pass Bier.
By 7:30 p. m., 135 patrolmen and 10 mounted police had control of the crowd, which marched 12 blocks to the front of the undertaker's. They were hustled past the bier at the rate of 100 a minute and it was estimated at midnight that 25,000 had seen the body, which will continue on view from 9 a. m. till midnight for the rest of the week.

The average wait was three and a half hours for an average glimpse of the star.

The announcement that the body would be on public view had an electric effect. Women, and men, began flocking toward Lincoln Square, where Broadway and Columbus avenue cross. By noon the crowd was so large that special police were requested to guard the area.

OHIO G. O. P. TO PUT PRIMARY LAW REPEAL UP TO VOTERS

Democrats Against Revocation and Both Parties Declare for Prohibition Enforcement.

By the Associated Press.
COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 25.—The Ohio Republican party today stood pledged to carry before the voters in November a plank for repeal of the State primary law. The declaration, adopted by the Platform Committee of the State convention in session here, is merely a pledge and declares nothing will be done toward repeal if it is not ratified in November.

The Democratic platform, adopted yesterday, committed that party against repeal of the primary system and declared against heavy campaign expenditures in the November election.

Both parties apparently are to fight shy of the prohibition question. The Democrats declared for enforcement, and the Republicans recommended a similar stand.

WINDS OF HURRICANE VELOCITY REPORTED WITH GULF STORM

Steamers Report a 75-Mile an Hour Gale With High Seas,
Heavy Rain.

By the Associated Press.
GALVESTON, Tex., Aug. 25.—
Reports from ships in the Gulf of Mexico indicated winds of hurricane velocity were accompanying the tropical storm moving inland from the Gulf. The steamship Cody, 220 miles east-southeast of Galveston, reported that the wind was blowing 75 miles an hour. The Cody was hoisted to the skipper reported he was near the storm.

The steamship Argon, in position 27 north and 90.50 west reported wind at 100 miles an hour from the northeast with high seas and heavy rain.

15 BROKERS EXECUTED IN CHINESE PROVINCE

Purpose of Death Penalty Is to Sustain Currency Value—Dealers Quoted Official Prices.

By the Associated Press.
MUKDEN, Manchuria, Aug. 25.—
Fifteen brokers have been executed within the last three days in an effort to sustain a fictitious value of the Manchu, or military currency, issued by the authorities of Fengtien province.

Chinese brokers who have taken refuge in the Japanese concession are terrorized. No one is permitted to enter the stock exchange here without a permit through fear of Government spies.

Having consideration for the ultimate consequences, brokers are quoting exchange at the official rate.

"NEW MESSIAH" AND MRS. BESANT REACH NEW YORK

Hindu Theosophist Is Confident Coming Will Accomplish a New Civilization in United States.

JAZZ IS MATERIALISM, HE TELLS REPORTERS

Forced to Go Through Usual Routine Observed in Landing of All Aliens in This Country.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Jiddu Krishnamurti, youthful Hindu theosophist, claimed by his followers to be the world medium for the "Voice of Godhead," arrived in America today, confident that his visit would result in the rise of a new civilization in this country.

The "new Messiah," as he has been called, was accompanied by Mrs. Annie Besant, 80-year-old president of the International Theosophical Society. There was no delegation of his followers to meet him at the pier and he was kept aboard the steamship Majestic with other aliens while immigration authorities went through with their usual routine questioning.

Asked to give his views of jazz, hipstics and the Charleston, Krishnamurti said:
"Happiness is being sought in the material, but it can be found only in the spiritual. This jazz world is materialism based on excitement and no real happiness is in it."

Krishnamurti declined personally to tell about the spiritual message he is bringing to America, but referred inquirers to a small pamphlet which was distributed. He is of small stature, weighing less than 100 pounds. He wore a gray suit, striped shirt and tan shoes. His black hair was brushed sleekly back from his dark forehead.

Shown a story published in a New York newspaper today stating that efforts had been made to bar him from this country on the ground of moral turpitude, Krish-
namurti said:
"It is all untrue. I deny every bit of it. All this was cleared up in the Madras court more than a year ago. This is the work of mischievous mad people."

As to the results he hopes his presence in this country will accomplish, Krishnamurti said:
"There should be a new civilization come with my coming."
He will lecture in Chicago. Then he will go to Los Angeles and reside in his California ranch, staying there probably until next November, he said.

During the voyage across, the Theosophist leader dined frequently with Miss Rosalind Williams of Ojai, Cal., a member of the "Star in the East," of which Krishna-murti is the head.

"I have enjoyed a great deal of my company," said Miss Williams, who is a blonde. "To know him is to fall in love with him at first sight. His spiritual qualities are marvelous."

TWO U. S. DESTROYERS TO BE SENT TO NICARAGUAN PORTS

Warships to Protect Americans and Property During Revolution
There.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Two American destroyers will be sent to the Nicaraguan ports of Blue Fields and Corinto because of the revolutionary outbreak in that country.
The step was described here as a precautionary measure, for protection of American interests.

The revolutionary movement developed a week ago, and advices reaching Washington have led State Department officials to believe that trouble is likely to continue for some time before the situation clarifies.

The Nicaraguan legation, on the other hand, declared several days ago that the revolution had been put down.

Official Report Says Rebels in Nicaragua Routed.

By the Associated Press.
MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Aug. 25.—
Official reports say that the rebel leader, Crisanto Zapata, with 200 men, was routed after a brisk fight in which 17 of his men were killed and 40 wounded. Zapata himself, it is said, was wounded.

W. A. Calhoun, customs collector at Bluefields, reports that the rebels have captured the Rio Grande headquarters of the Cuyamel Fruit Co. American aviators employed by the Government are equipping planes with machine guns and bombs for use against gun runners on the Pacific Coast.
A Mexican boat is reported off shore, waiting to land arms.

RUSSIA BIDDING FOR AMERICAN FAVOR BY PASSPORT LENIENCY

Restrictions Relaxed in Hope of Hurrying Recognition, and Tourists Flock In.

By the Associated Press.
LENINGRAD, Russia, Aug. 25.—
Not since prewar days have there been as many tourists in Russia as there are now. The hotels in Moscow and Leningrad have been taxed beyond their capacity. Nearly 400 South American tourists, mostly Argentines, have arrived here, bringing the number from North and South America alone to almost 500.

Relaxing American recognition will come sooner if large numbers of Americans are permitted to see Russia as it actually is. The Government has relaxed its previous severe passport restrictions.

MOSCOW, Aug. 25.—Hilton U.
Brown, of the Indianapolis News and president of the Board of Directors of Butler College, Indianapolis, Ind., has arrived here to make a first-hand study of conditions in Moscow, Leningrad and the provinces.

COURT PLACES RESTRAINT ON RADIO TUNING DEVICE

Also Orders Accounting by Split-dorf Company That Is Expected to Involve Millions.

By the Associated Press.
TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 25.— Federal Judge Bodine imposed a restraint today upon the use by the Splitdorf Electrical Co. of a patented tuning system as part of a radio receiving set, the rights to which were claimed by the Radio Corporation of America, the General Electric Co. and the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co. The court also ordered that the Splitdorf company account for profits derived from the patent.

This phase of the decision is thought to involve millions.
It was claimed in the suit that the complaining companies held exclusive patent rights on the tuning systems now in general use on radio sets. The device, it was said, was invented and patented in October, 1913, by Ernest F. W.
Alexanderson, who sold his rights to the General Electric Co. The latter company licensed the Radio Corporation to manufacture and sell the invention.

The Splitdorf Co. was accused of embezzling the device in a radio set known to the trade as "Type 12-50." Answering that contention, the Splitdorf executives argued that the system in question was in popular use prior to the Alexanderson patent and sought to show that the patent does not comply with Federal regulations.

The decision of the court followed a hearing last June without a jury.

300-POUND BATTLE-AX WORK OF HUMAN HANDS

Georgia Relic Supposed to Have Been Property of Legendary Indian Hercules.

By the Associated Press.
ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 25.—A stone battle-axe weighing more than 300 pounds and measuring 29 inches in length is on display in the office of Secretary of State G. McCallister. The relic was found there by L. R. Waller, on whose Oconee River farm in Putnam County, Ga., it was found more than a century ago.

Believed at first to be a freak of nature, geologists found that the stone had been shaped and a groove for the handle cut by human hands. Waller said he believed the weapon to have been used by Creek Indians who once lived in the vicinity of the Waller farm.

Creek Indian legend has it that the ax was the property of a powerful chieftain.

TRY TO IDENTIFY DEAD BOMBER OF PITTSBURG BANK

One Theory Is He Was Escaped Lunatic, but Relatives View Body and Point Out Differences.

INITIALED BUCKLE AND NOTEBOOK CLEWS

Policeman Dies of Injuries—Twenty-Four Persons in Hospital, Some in Serious Condition.

By the Associated Press.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 25.—Police are trying to identify the body of a man who late yesterday set off a bomb in the Farmers' Deposit Savings Bank here, killing himself and fatally injuring George C. Ortman, special bank policeman.

One theory is that the bomber was John T. Collins, a lunatic who recently escaped from City Hospital. Collins' relatives who viewed the body at the morgue, however, declare the man was not Collins. A belt buckle, on which was engraved the initial "J. T.", and a notebook, found near the bomber's body, containing the name of John T. Collins, after the killing broke and breaking furniture in the city hall council chamber some time ago, Collins was sent to the asylum for observation. He escaped and has not been heard of since. The notebook contained the names of many prominent Pittsburghers, including councilmen, and a notation of the dates when the Council meets. Collins had threatened city officials.

A brother-in-law said Collins had gray hair, whereas that of the bomber was black. Collins also had a large scar on one hand but such a mark was not found on the hand of the dead man. Relatives said they did not know where Collins went following his escape from the hospital.

Bomber's Note Found. While searching the clothing taken from Ortman's body Police Lieut. Connor found the note in which the bomber made his demand and threat.

Written on plain writing paper, in pencil, in good handwriting, the note said:

"Sir: You are held up for $2000 with 50 sticks of dynamite. The dynamite is in the grip, the one I hold in my hand. It will discharge when the handle is out of my hand. If you or anyone else fires the gun at me there will be no case left. We will all be blowing up to pieces. If you willing to come through with two thousand be quiet and keep off the alarm. The help won't do you no good. If they come they come for their death. If not, make all the noise you like. I will help you with the noise that whole Pittsburgh will hear. If you want to see the death machine, ask for otherwise absolute silence. Death $2000—either you like."

The note was unsigned. The note, handed to a teller by the bomber, was turned over to Ortman, a special bank policeman. Ortman, after reading it, placed it in his pocket and stepped toward the man. As he did so, the bomber kicked the grip.

Presented Demand for $2000. The bomber, a man of foreign appearance, dressed in working clothes, entered the bank yesterday and presented his demand. When Ortman approached to arrest him he placed a black satchel upon the floor and gave it a kick. A violent explosion followed.

Heavy pieces of marble, torn from the ceiling of the banking rooms, crashed down, while windows were shattered, showering alkali pedicarians and those inside the building with flying glass. Tellers and clerks, bleeding from cuts, worked frantically to gather up piles of money which had been blown about.

Outside, all was in a turmoil. Thousands, pouring out from nearby office buildings and theaters, quickly gathered at the scene and ambulances and fire apparatus found a difficulty in approaching the building. It was not until the arrival of police reserves that order was restored.

The injured, some of them lying in the streets, were taken to hospital. Six of the men hurt severely enough to require hospital treatment were reported in a serious condition.

Bank officers, after an investigation, fixed the damage to the 24-story building at $150,000. Repairs were begun at once and it was announced the bank would do business as usual today.

The bombing recalls somewhat similar attempts on the lives of Russell Sage and Henry Clay Frick in 1891 and 1892 during the Home-Steak strike. Henry Horrocks, a crank, tried to blow up Sage with a bomb, but was killed himself. Alexander Berkman, the anarchist husband of Emma Goldman, shot Frick twice and when seized by police tried to kill himself by chewing a fulminate of mercury cap. Frick recovered and so did Berkman, the latter being sentenced later to 31 years in prison.

Model of Parachute Which Saved Disabled Airplane

AIRPLANE MAKES PARACHUTE JUMP

Engine Is Killed in Midair, and 274 Yards of Silk Lower Car 2500 Feet.

By the Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 25.—Naval observers declared today that complete safety of airplane travel has been assured as the result of the test made here yesterday in which a giant parachute brought a plane and pilot safely to earth from an altitude of 2500 feet.

The ship was lowered from the skies after the engine had been killed. It made a "pancake landing." A part of the undercarriage was broken and a propeller blade was snapped, but Lieut. P. D. Donnelly of the Naval Air Station at San Diego declared the experiment an unqualified success.

The mammoth parachute, spreading 274 yards of silk, is the invention of Harry A. Douchett, chief machinist's mate in the United States Navy. The test was made at Inglewood Airport by R. Carl Oelze of the Naval Reserve, who piloted the plane, and was witnessed by 25,000 persons, including army and navy officers.

A dozen planes, including several naval ships and others carrying newsreel photographers, circled around Oelze's machine during its descent.

After reaching the desired altitude, Oelze stopped his motor and released the big bag. For a while the plane swung from side to side, but soon steadied itself, landing on the outskirts of El Segundo, about three and a half miles west of the starting place. The descent required one minute and six seconds, approximately 38 feet a second. The pilot and plane weighed 1800 pounds.

BECKER ORDERED TO PUT FUNDS IN STATE TREASURY

banks to furnish him the required information. He enclosed a copy of the letter sent by him to each of the banks, requesting the information desired by the Governor, but saying nothing about an impending withdrawal of the funds.

He also sent the Governor a copy of a letter which he has written to Attorney-General Gentry in which he says to Gentry:

"You have seen fit to state through the public press that penal bonds I received from financial institutions for the refund of certain deposits of money derived from the sale of motor vehicle licenses were void for the reason that I had no warrant in law to make such deposits."

"If this statement be true, then the bank that received such money was put on notice that I had no authority in law to make such deposits; therefore, the bank never became a debtor of the State of Missouri and it is illegally holding such money."

If your position as stated in your interview is still your position, then I request you to immediately repel from the Bank of England the sum of $25,013.12, which is the amount, less withdrawals, deposited by me with said institution. If, on the other hand, you have changed your opinion as to the validity of said penal bonds, you can proceed by either repaying the amount on behalf of the State of Missouri or suing the bankmen on behalf of the State of Missouri.

Says Bondsman Will Pay. "For your information I may tell you that the persons who signed the bond on behalf of the Citizens' Security Bank of England, I am informed, are preparing to sue the State of Missouri on said bond and amount that said State may lose by said deposit; therefore, in either event, the State of Missouri is not in jeopardy of

CURBED RIGHT-OF-WAY ON OLIVE TO BE TRIED

Order of Federal Court Contemplates Removal if Unsatisfactory.

A one-year trial of the plan of a curbed right-of-way, in the middle of the widened Olive street, is contemplated in an order issued today by Federal Judge Paris. The order authorizes Receiver Wells of the United Railways to enter into an agreement with the Board of Public Service for the relocating of the company's tracks in Olive, from Twelfth boulevard to Channing avenue. The street is to be widened by addition of 40 feet on the south side.

By the terms of the agreement, the receiver can bind the future management of the United Railways, or Public Service Corporation, as it is to be known after reorganization, to remove the curb and pave the street between its tracks, if the plan is not deemed to have worked satisfactorily in a year's trial.

This is designed to meet the objection of some property owners, who have expressed the fear that the plan, if adopted, could not be changed because of the paving question.

Some property owners and real estate agents have raised the objection that the street would become a one-way street, and that business houses on the north side of the street would get westbound trade only, and on the south side only eastbound trade.

The chief arguments for the plan are those of safety and increased speed, for the benefit of car riders. Some of the present stops would be eliminated.

losing any money by reason of said deposit.

"I can scarcely believe that the interviews that you have seen fit to give the newspapers have as their motive the discharge of my official duties, and yet I am reluctant to conclude that you are making these public statements for the purpose of injuring the reputation I have built by zealously serving the people over a period of many years."

"Be assured that at all times I will co-operate with any proper official of the State of Missouri to secure a result that will be the best interest of said State."

Becker issued a statement, which he said would be his last on the subject. It is:

"The auditor, I am reliably informed, is going to commence auditing my automobile department next week. The Governor has called for an additional audit of my department by himself. All the information he is asking for will be gladly furnished to him. Just why there should be two audits of my department is beyond me, unless the Attorney-General, who prepared the second request for the Governor, is afraid that the auditor is not competent to dig up some dark and mysterious thing in my official past that the able and efficient Attorney-General imagines exists."

NEGROES JOIN IN MOVE TO REDUCE HOMICIDE RATE

Of 77 Killings Here This Year 51 Were Among Members of That Race, Coroner Reports.

A committee of Negro leaders was organized last night, at the suggestion of Coroner Rudolph Vitt, to ascertain the cause of the high homicide rate among Negroes here and to attempt to remedy existing conditions by a program of education.

One of the first steps in the campaign, it was stated, will be to investigate the manner in which Negro homicide cases are handled by Circuit Attorney Sidener's office.

The plan was formulated at a meeting of Negro churchmen and educators, called by Coroner Vitt, at 4217 Enright avenue, the home of Prof. Frank La Williams, principal of Sumner High School.

Dr. Vitt quoted recently published figures to the effect that of 77 homicides in St. Louis this year, 51 were Negroes, whereas the ratio of population is 19 whites to one Negro.

Thinks Crime Is Winked At. The Rev. B. F. Abbott, pastor of Union Memorial Methodist Church, expressed the belief that prosecuting officials were lax in permitting dives and resorts to operate unmolested in Negro districts, and that politicians winked at crimes among Negroes in order to get votes.

J. W. Myers, assistant principal of Sumner High School, said newcomers from the South were taken immediately in hand by ward heelers and promised an easy way out of trouble in exchange for their votes.

Housing conditions and segregation were blamed by H. A. Craft, secretary of Pine Street Y. M. C. A.

"So long as there is a tendency to build an air-tight wall around the Negroes, it will be difficult to destroy their undesirable tendencies," he said.

Coroner Vitt pointed out that the Negro homicide rate was increasing this month at even a more alarming figure than before, with 15 such deaths so far.

Killings Over Trifles. Most of the Negro homicides, he pointed out, are the result of trivial

LAW STUDENT FINED $50 FOR STRIKING GIRL GUEST

She Testifies He Knocked Her Unconscious on Visit to River Club House.

Raymond Caruthers, 25 years old, a law student at Washington University, was fined $50 and costs by Justice of the Peace Peters at Kirkwood yesterday for common assault on complaint of Miss Margaret Morris, 24, of Little Rock, Ark. She testified that "he knocked me cold" in a Meramec River club house at Fern Glen the night of Aug. 12.

Miss Morris said she and Miss Evelyn Seaborn, 19, of 4007 Shannandoah avenue, whom she was visiting, went to the club house with Caruthers and another young man on the representation that a party would be held there. They found no party and Miss Morris said Caruthers put his arms around her. She slapped him and he struck her, knocking her unconscious, she told the Justice.

Caruthers asserted that he had only pushed Miss Morris and that her head struck a light bracket.

The Rev. W. F. E. Ashe Buried. Funeral services were held at Edwardsville today for the Rev. W. F. E. Ashe, whose death occurred Sunday at Lebanon. He was a retired pastor of the Baptist denomination and was 75 years old.

He cited several specific cases, a shooting over 30 cents in a crap game, a man killed in an argument over a piece of pie, a shooting because of the refusal of a cigarette and five shootings which arose from quarrels between young women about their sweethearts.

He noted a tendency to carry deadly weapons to dances and parties and classified the Negro deaths this year, 34 by firearms, 13 by knives, three by clubs and one by a razor.

The committee which was organized has 10 members, with Prof. Williams as chairman, and the plan is to meet each week at the chairman's home. The committee proposes to expand to 50 members and conduct their campaign through the Negro press, churches, schools and civic organizations.

The members of the committee enrolled last night, besides Prof. Williams, are Secretary Craft, Assistant Principal Myers, the Rev. Mr. Abbott, Dr. W. L. Perry, pastor of the Antioch Baptist Church; the Rev. S. E. Mosely, pastor of the Liberty Congregational Church; the Rev. E. O. Maxwell, pastor of First Baptist Church; and the Rev. H. W. Evans, pastor of the Lane Tabernacle.

ST. LOUIS TOURISTS ARRIVE IN DRESDEN

Chamber of Commerce Party Received in Rathaus by Civic Officials.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.

DRESDEN, Germany, Aug. 25.—The St. Louis Chamber of Commerce delegates are the guests of this ancient city, treasury of art and capital of the longtime Kingdom of Saxony, now a constituent state of the German republic. The city received its visitors yesterday in the Rathaus. The reception, by the civic officials, was characterized by the profuse friendliness which has been shown in other German cities.

Today, the St. Louisans are to drive to the Meissen porcelain works, for luncheon. Tea will be taken in Albrechtburg Castle, as guests of the Government of Saxony. The castle, which before the war housed the royal family of Saxony, is now closed to the public, and to the general run of tourists.

STATIONARY FIREMAN DIES OF BLOOD POISONING FROM BURN
Did Not Enter Hospital Until Infection Set In, Three Weeks After Mishap.

William Edwards, 60 years old, a stationary fireman, died at City Hospital today of blood poisoning caused by a burn on his right arm three weeks ago while at work.

Edwards, who resided at 401 North Eleventh street, applied home remedies and did not enter the hospital until last Saturday after infection had set in.

Two Suspects Taken. Laster then identified him and started to get out of the car, but his wife pleaded that he drive back to Joplin. The detective then reached for his gear shift, intending to start the car, when the man fired. Laster slumped in his seat and died a few moments later. Two suspects were taken.

Soon after news of the killing reached police headquarters of the two men, both of whom were arrested four miles from the scene and both Mrs. Laster and Mrs. Shears said Jeffers' voice resembled that of the slayer.

Deny Hearing Shot. The women heard four different men speak in the Laster home on Monday night. The one they occupied and both expressed belief that Jeffers was the slayer when he spoke.

Orborne and Jeffers were questioned all night, but emphatically denied the slaying. They declared they were on their way to California and did not hear the fatal shot. Police say they were within a quarter of a mile of the scene of the killing 20 minutes before the slaying.

One police theory is that the man who stopped Laster intended to hold up the motorists and became frightened when Laster told him he was an officer. Another is that the men were liquor robbers.

Laster was 44 years old and was the oldest married man in the department in point of service. He had served in the department various capacities, once being chief of police. Besides his son Rob and the widow he is survived by another son, James, 23, and two daughters, Irene, 16, and Allie, 14.

3660 PUPIL GAIN LAST YEAR
IN ST. LOUIS COUNTY SCHOOLS

Superintendent's Report Shows $17,351 Expenses and Property Value of $6,979,290.

An increased enrollment of 3660 pupils in the 154 St. Louis County public schools during the year ending June 30, last, was reported today by County Superintendent G. Russell.

Total enrollment in the 12 high schools and 142 grade schools is 41,059, as compared to 37,399 pupils the previous year. Current figures for the year amounted to $1,517,351, according to the report, while the value of school property, including ground, buildings and equipment, is placed at $6,979,290. There were 764 teachers employed at an average salary of $1163 a month for high school instructors and $1100 monthly for grade school teachers.

Average cost of educating a school pupil for the year was $105.04; grade school, $48.88. Eleven new schools were built during the year. The same number as in the previous year. The report was submitted to the State Superintendent of Schools.

'LABOR' CALLS L. C. DYER 'CORPORATION BELLHOP'

Attacks Record of St. Louis Congressman Who Is Seeking Re-election.

From the Washington Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The defeat of Representative L. C. Dyer (Rep.) of the Twelfth Missouri District, a candidate for re-election, would be cause for national rejoicing, according to the latest issue of the weekly newspaper, "Labor," published in Washington.

In answer to a communication from St. Louis asking why the railroad labor organizations were opposing Dyer, who the latter said had called himself a friend of organized labor, the newspaper made the following reply:

"Few men in Congress have a worse record than Dyer. He voted for the Cummins-Esch bill, fought the Howell-Barkley bill and has gone along with the old guard on every piece of reactionary legislation suggested during all the years he has been in Congress. In the recent session, he introduced an amendment to the employers' liability law, which would have made it exceedingly difficult for a railroad worker to recover damages for injuries. This proposal was drafted by the attorneys for the railroad companies, and Dyer and certain other bell hops of the corporations attempted to slip it through the House and Senate, but they were blocked by the national legislation representatives of the railroad labor organizations. The defeat of a man like Dyer would be cause for national rejoicing."

LABOR CALLS L. C. DYER CORPORATION BELLHOP

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The feat of Representative L. C. Dyer (Rep.), of the Twelfth Missouri district, a candidate for re-election, could be cause for national rejoicing, according to the latest issue of the weekly newspaper, "Labor," published in Washington.

In answer to a communication from St. Louis asking why the rail and labor organizations were opposing Dyer, the paper said, "Dyer called himself a friend of organized labor, the newspaper made the following reply:

"Few men in Congress have a more perfect record than Dyer. He voted the Cummins-Esch bill, the right of the Howell-Barkeley bill and went along with the old guard in every piece of reactionary legislation suggested during all the years he has been in Congress. In recent session, he introduced an amendment to the employers' liability law, which would have made it exceedingly difficult for a road worker to recover damages for injuries. This proposal was drafted by the attorneys for railroad companies, and Dyer, certain other bell hogs of the operations attempted to slip it through the House and Senate, but was blocked by the national labor representatives of the road and labor organizations. The last of a man like Dyer would be cause for national rejoicing."

ATIONARY FIREMAN DIES OF BLOOD POISONING FROM BURN

Not Enter Hospital Until Infection Set In, Three Weeks After Mishap.

William Edwards, 59 years old, stationary fireman, died at City hospital today of blood poisoning caused by a burn on his right arm weeks ago while at work.

Edwards, who resided at 4002, St. Eleventh street, applied the remedies and did not enter hospital until last Saturday when infection had set in.

CHIEF OF JOPLIN DETECTIVES SLAIN AT WHEEL OF AUTO

Jess Laster, on Pleasure Ride With Relatives, Shot by Man With Rifle Pretending to Be an Officer.

TWO SUSPECTS ARE CAUGHT BY POSSE

Flashlight Dropped by Slayer, Who Fires When Policeman Reveals Identity, Is Only Claw.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. JOPLIN, Mo., Aug. 25.—Jess Laster, Chief of Detectives, was shot through the head and instantly killed by an unidentified man when he was halted with his wife and other relatives in his automobile on a road seven miles northwest of here at 9:30 o'clock last night.

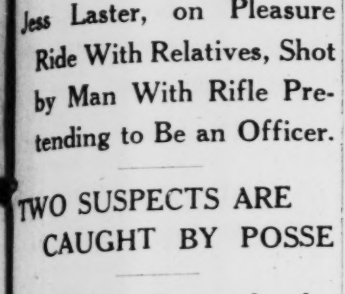

The slayer, who represented himself to be an officer, came from the woods at the side of the road, and, flashing a light on the motor car in which Laster, his wife and son, Robert, 11 years old, and Laster's sister and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Shear of Sedalia, were taking a pleasure ride, demanded that the party stop. Laster applied the brakes.

Leveling a rifle that he carried, the man approached to within a few feet of the car and asked the motorists where they were going. "We are going to town," Laster replied. "Who are you and what do you want?"

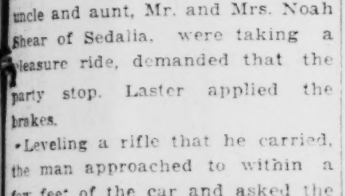

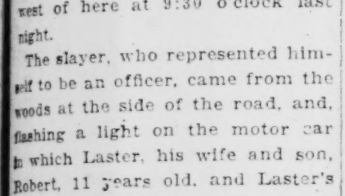

"Never mind who we are," the man replied. "We're officers and are looking for bootleggers with a carload of booze."

Two Suspects Taken. Laster then identified himself and started to get out of the car, but his wife pleaded that he drive back to Joplin. The detective chief reached for his gear shift, intending to start the car, when the man fired. Laster slumped in his seat and died a few moments later. The slayer and a companion, whom the motorists had not seen previously, fled into the darkness. Laster's body was brought to Joplin in his car driven by the widow.

Removing Valentino's Body From Hospital; Dead Film Star at 18, Father and Mother

COVERED with cloth of gold, the body of Rudolph Valentino was carried from Polyclinic Hospital, New York City, as thousands watched. Below (center), is a photograph of the screen star taken in 1913, when he wore a mustache and spoke no English. At either side are his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Giovanni Guglielmi.

main entrance of the undertaking establishment.

The simple casket, half of the coffin was closed with bronze, half with a thick plate of glass, showing the face, was taken down to the second floor, so people coming in the front door could climb a circling stairway one flight, pass through the small room where the coffin was and then go down into the sixteenth street.

Everything portable was taken from the room in fear of souvenir hunters.

Rain Starts the Riot.

By the time this had been done there were 5000 women and men in Broadway, Sixty-sixth and Sixty-seventh streets. There had been a threat of rain, and suddenly a downpour began.

The people huddled around and backing into the solidly packed masses. The crowd broke and ran. But they ran into thicker huddles and began screaming, clawing, going into hysterics and fainting. Women, their shoes hobbled about in stocking feet, wringing their hands.

Suddenly one of the large plate glass windows in the undertaker's building gave way. Three policemen were forced back and the falling glass and were severely cut. A moving picture photographer tumbled in a heap with his camera, and the glass cut his legs. Two women were pushed across the jagged opening in the window.

Down at the corner of Sixty-sixth street and Broadway another plate glass window gave way and the pieces shivered down on the wet pavement.

Curious Scene at Bier.

The riot, which had broken out about 2:30 p. m., was in hand by 3, but the people did not go home. After the doors were opened, police manipulated a line, admitting persons at the rate of about 5000 an hour. Men and boys, women and girls filed in. "Step lively, don't stop. Lots of people behind you," the line filling past made a curious scene. At one end of the coffin a few flowers were laid. At the other stood a statue of the Virgin. A candle burned at head and foot of the red velvet light, hung at the foot of a small bronze crucifix. Mortuary palms made a background. Through the glass could be seen the dead star's face, strangely unreal.

DECLINES TO DISCUSS HIS $16,000 SHORTAGE

F. P. Rohlman Refers Inquiry to Attorney in City Trust Co. Case.

Frank P. Rohlman, former manager of the Accounts Receivable Department of the City Trust Co., 1122 Washington avenue, in whose books a shortage of $16,478.96 has been found by auditors, today declined to comment on a statement issued yesterday by the bank revealing the discrepancy.

He referred inquiries to his attorney, James E. Carroll, former United States District Attorney, who said he had no discussion of the case to make at this time.

Rohlman, who is 36 years old, lives with his wife and two children at 42 Sunset court, St. Louis County. He has not been in the employ of the bank for six months, leaving its service at the time the shortage was discovered.

Mrs. Rohlman said yesterday that her husband had not been working for the past month but prior to that time for the previous five months had been selling real estate. She said he had never told her that his accounts were in bad shape and declared the first intimation she had that anything was amiss was yesterday when she read the Post-Dispatch.

Rohlman is described by relatives as a man of engaging personality and devoted to his family, with which he spends most of his evenings. He has two automobiles. His case will be referred to the Circuit Attorney, A. N. Kinsbury, president of the bank, announced yesterday. The discrepancy already has been covered in full by the National Surety Co., which writes the blanket bond protecting the bank against losses by employees.

arm. Mothers carried babies, others lifted up children who could not see.

Crowd Curious, Not Sympathetic.

A few wept a little. But mostly the crowd seemed curious rather than sympathetic.

Outside the crowd was impatient. There were three secondary riots, coming on by waves and being charged by the mounted men. Another troop of mounted men was called for. There were 100 patrolmen on post by this time.

Twenty plain clothes men mingled with the crowd. Pickpockets had arrived and were taking advantage of the situation. Many purses found their way into wrong pockets.

No actors, no motion picture stars, no persons prominent in Broadway life appeared in the visiting throngs. Few flowers were carried. Constance Talmadge sent a large floral piece and there were a few bouquets with women's cards attached.

THREE MEN FIRED ON FROM PASSING AUTO

Police Find Gangsters' Abandoned Nearby, no Trace of Intended Victims.

A fusillade of shots from a moving automobile at three men who stood on the southeast corner of Twelfth and Rutgers streets last midnight indicated to police that warfare in the Cuckoo kang had been revived.

The three men who were shot at as rapidly as their assailants and all police found after a night of searching was an abandoned automobile, licensed to a Cuckoo gangster and ex-convict.

Three persons who saw the shooting said the three men were talking under a street light at the corner when a coupe came west on Rutgers street. It slowed down at the corner, five or six shots were fired and then the machine continued west.

One of the men staggered as if wounded, and the three ran rapidly east, disappearing. The abandoned machine was found in the 1000 block of Rutgers street and police believe it was left there by one of the men who ran away.

DESERTING BOGOSLOF OF ISLAND AGAIN JOINING YOUNG SISTER

Long Split Also Reported of High Rocks Known as "Castles" in "Jack-in-Box" Group.

CORDOVA, Alaska, Aug. 25.—Bogoslof Islands, known as the "Jack-in-the-Box Group," in the Aleutian Chain, 1000 miles southwest of here, have undergone another transformation, the United States Coast Guard cutter Halda, which went to the islands to investigate eruptions, has reported by wireless.

The islands' silhouette remains unchanged, but Bogoslof, which suddenly deserted, then rejoined Fire Island, or New Bogoslof, in 1908, is again uniting with its younger brother or sister.

Halda reported that a long split extended northward from the west side of high rocks known as "The Castles" on Bogoslof almost to Fire Island.

BROTHER-IN-LAW KILLS PASTOR AS HOME WRECKER

W. R. Leffler Hits the Rev. Edward Gilum, Revivalist, With Indian Club at Springfield, Mo.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Aug. 25.—The Rev. Edward Gilum, 40 years old, who had been conducting services in Sheridan, Mo., was killed yesterday by his brother-in-law, W. R. Leffler, 31, at the Leffler home here. Leffler hit him with an Indian club.

Leffler called police and surrendered. He is held today without bond pending an inquest.

At police headquarters Leffler made the following statement: "When I went home about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon I found Gilum waiting there. There has been bad feeling between us for some time and when he saw me come into the room he whirled around and reached for his hip pocket. Thinking he was going to draw a pistol, I seized an Indian club from the floor and struck Gilum on the head. He fell through a window onto the porch. I followed and hit him two more times, then ran to a grocery nearby and called the police."

Gilum lived a few hours without regaining consciousness. When informed that Gilum had only the slightest chance of recovery Leffler said, "I hope he doesn't die. I didn't intend to kill him, but I thought he was going to kill me and I acted in defense of myself and my home."

"He threatened to kill me. He even wrote a letter threatening my life. For a long time he has been trying to estrange my wife and me, but he had no luck."

"I warned him repeatedly to stay away from my home, and when I arrived home and found him there I gave him a just beating."

"Gilum married my sister, but I don't know where they have been living. I think my sister is somewhere around Tulsa now."

Police said Gilum had a rifle and a pistol when he went to Leffler's home. He carried the rifle into the house, but left the pistol in his automobile.

Mrs. Leffler corroborated part of her husband's statement. She said Gilum had been threatening her husband and annoying her for some time. She was in the back of the house during the fight and saw only a part of the struggle.

Boy CONVICTED OF MANSLAUGHTER MAY GET PAROLE

Orville Beasley, 17, Sentenced by Jury, Too Old for Delinquent Farm, Young for Jail.

Circuit Judge Pearcey will have to decide what shall be done with Orville Beasley, 17 years old, whom a jury in Juvenile Court yesterday found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to six months in jail.

Richard Berger, 18, died from a knife wound inflicted in a scuffle with Beasley, near Eighteenth and Carr streets, the night of April 29, last.

The youth has been in jail for nearly four months, but this detention before his trial differs legally from a commitment to jail under sentence. His lawyer has now raised the point that the law forbids one under 18 to be held in jail under sentence. Bellefontaine Farms, for delinquent boys, does not receive those over 15. The court may solve the difficulty by granting a parole.

Young Beasley told his story of the encounter with Berger, on the witness stand in his own defense. He said Berger and three others were pitted against himself and one companion, Dudley Lumpkin. He denied that he intended to stab Berger. He said he had held his knife before him, and that Berger pushed himself upon the knife. A policeman testified that Beasley gave the same explanation when he was arrested.

"The four fellows came up to Dudley and me at Eighteenth and Carr," Beasley testified, "and one of them challenged Dudley to fight. They went to the alley, and two of them pitched into Dudley. I didn't take a hand, but Dudley asked me to hand him a stick, and I did. Then two of them turned on me, and I ran across the street, and fell down beside a parked automobile. They piled on me, and I got out my pocket knife. Berger fell on it, or the other boy pushed him on it. I didn't know he had been cut until I was told later."

THREE DEAD IN PISTOL FIGHT OVER A GIRL IN CHURCH

Rival Escorts Kill Each Other and a Bystander in Encounter at Bledsoe, Ky., Revival.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 25.—In a pistol fight in church over a girl at Bledsoe, Ky., both participants and a bystander were killed.

Frank Blanton, 19 years old, went to the church where a revival was in progress and announced his intention to escort Miss Maggie Hoskins home. George Whitehead, 20 years old, objected. Blanton thereupon opened fire. Whitehead grappled with Blanton, wrestling the revolver from him and firing at his antagonist at close range. Both fell mortally wounded, dying a few hours later.

Chester Hoskins, 18 years old, a relation of the girl who was killed by Blanton's first shot. The revival broke up in a panic.

PAY OF TARIFF COMMISSION APPOINTEES IS HELD UP

E. B. Brossard and S. J. Lowell, Denied Confirmation by Senate, Must Wait, Comptroller Says.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—E. B. Brossard and Sherman J. Lowell, members of the Tariff Commission who were given recess appointments by President Coolidge after Congress failed to act on their nominations, cannot draw pay until they have been confirmed by the Senate, Comptroller-General McCarl has ruled.

McCarl relied on the law which declares no appointee can be paid salary for a recess appointment if the vacancy existed during the session of Congress.

McKinley Taken to Sanitarium.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Senator McKinley of Illinois, who has been seriously ill for three months with sciatic rheumatism, has been moved from his home here to a sanitarium at Martinsville, Ind. His physician felt it desirable to get him away from the capital because climatic conditions here were regarded as against him.

Lured From Home, Fatally Shot.

Oscar Dodson, 38 years old, of 2304 Randolph street, a Negro, was lured from his home last night by another Negro who asked him to help get an automobile out of a midhole in a nearby street, and shot through the heart. Before he died he told a neighbor, Nathan Fair of 2118 Randolph street, who had rushed to his aid when attracted by several shots, that a relative by marriage had shot him. Dodson's wife said she knew of no quarrel between the men.

Held for Theft of Auto.

Eugene Ohi, 25 years old, a former soldier at Scott Field, was bound over to the St. Clair County grand jury under $1000 bond yesterday on a charge of larceny in connection with the theft of an automobile belonging to Frank Vidmar, a soldier at Scott Field.

FARMHAND ADMITS KILLING EMPLOYER

Frank Sparr Pleads Guilty of Murder of Peter Rosenberger at Assumption, Ill.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. VANDALIA, Ill., Aug. 25.—Frank Sparr pleaded guilty here today to the charge of murdering his aged employer, Peter Rosenberger, a farmer of Assumption, Ill., when arraigned before Judge Roy Dove, on a charge of "criminal complicity." The Judge deferred sentence until after testimony in the case is presented to establish the degree of Sparr's guilt.

Rosenberger disappeared from his 80-acre farm on June 30 and on Aug. 7 his body was found floating in the Okaw River, 50 miles downstream from the Rosenberger farm. He had been struck on the back of the head and his skull fractured.

A few days after Rosenberger disappeared Sparr, his farmhand, presented a bill of sale for the farm implements, saying that Rosenberger had sold out to him and had gone away. The story was at once questioned as it became known that a few weeks before Rosenberger's disappearance Sparr was destitute and borrowed $16 from his employer.

MRS. L. B. PIERCE INJURED

She and Her Daughter in Bus Crash Near Atlantic City, N. J.

Mrs. Lawrence B. Pierce of 16 Hortense place and her daughter, Mrs. R. M. C. Ormrod of 4923 McPherson avenue, who have been visiting Atlantic City, N. J., for the last three weeks, were slightly injured yesterday when a passenger bus from Atlantic City to Philadelphia, in which they were riding, was in collision with a five-ton truck on the White Horse Turnpike near Atlantic City. They were severely shaken and bruised but returned to their hotel at Atlantic City.

Sixteen other passengers suffered minor injuries. The bus driver was attempting to pass an automobile on a hill when the truck coming in the opposite direction over the brow of the hill struck the bus.

DRUG EXPERIMENT POLICE THEORY OF DEATH OF WOMAN

No Poison Found So Far in Body of Dorothy Kirk
Cleveland, O. — Student Suitor Questioned.

By the Associated Press.
CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 23.—The theory advanced by the authorities for the death Sunday of Dorothy Kirk of Canal Fulton, O., 21-year-old stenographer, who is believed to have died as a result of overdoses of drugs given her by Ernest Balanescu, 21 years old, her suitor.

Balanescu, according to police, has admitted prescribing medicine for the girl, but refuses to tell what they were. So numerous were the pills and other medicines taken by the girl that chemists who are examining Miss Kirk's stomach said it is a "store house of drugs." It may prove impossible to locate the medicines found in the girl's stomach, said City Chemist Knapp, who is conducting the analysis, or to attribute her death to any one drug. So far as has been learned no poisons were given Miss Kirk, he said, and it might be necessary to attribute her death to indiscriminate consumption of medicines.

When Balanescu took the girl to a hospital a few hours after her death Sunday, she was unconscious and attendants were unable to revive her. Authorities there have no statement from him to add to their investigation.

Drug Experiment Suspected.
One of the theories advanced by police is that innocent of the result of the drug habit, Miss Kirk made the unconscious victim of experiment with narcotics.

Between sobs Balanescu told his wish to help Miss Kirk, who he says he loved. He made acquaintance seven months ago, he said, and had no intention, according to police, of making her ill, much less of causing her death. Some of the medicines, he said, were prescribed to cheer her when she seemed despondent, others to revive her when she appeared pale and wan.

The medical knowledge of youth was gained in Paris, where he lived with his parents until a few years ago, in drug stores in America in which he has been employed, and in a medical school here.

Three Bushels of Medicines.
Mrs. Anna Balanescu, mother of the youth, came to his support day when police confronted him with the discovery of three bushels of medicines and pills found in his room. These, she said, were her own property and had been prescribed by physicians at Lakeside Hospital over a period of years when she was under treatment for a chronic ailment.

Coroner A. P. Hammond, instructed police to hold Balanescu for questioning, but no charge has been placed against him.

J. T. Wall, First Assistant Narcotic Agent here, also requested that the young Frenchman be held pending an investigation to determine whether he is a man sought by Federal authorities for possession of drugs.

Isadore Moidel of Warren, attorney, retained yesterday to represent the boy, said last night there was nothing criminal in the girl's death and that he would demand the immediate release of Balanescu.

MAN AFRAID TO GO TO COURT IN TRAFFIC CASE, KILLS SON

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—At the funeral of Albert P. Reeves in Springs yesterday it was disclosed that he had killed himself because he was afraid to go to court to a charge of parking his automobile overtime.

Reeves, who was 26 years old and lived near Philipstown, N. Y., to Rye Beach several weeks and parked his car on one of the business streets for two hours he strolled about seeing the sights. When he returned he found a woman on the steering wheel. Reeves pocketed the sum and drove home at once. He tried, picturing himself in court in jail. He told his family of his fears, but their consolation failed to soothe him.

He was to appear in court Monday. Early Sunday he hanged himself.

DRUG EXPERIMENT, POLICE THEORY OF DEATH OF WOMAN

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 25.—The mania of her youthful sweetheart for administering medicines is the

All the Newness ~ All the Smartness in these FROCKS for FALL

And They're Priced but

Thursday morning we invite you to an event—a gala occasion on our Apparel Floor. It will be our first complete showing of Frocks at $25 for the season, and it will be a demonstration—yes, a revelation—of what you may expect to find here in this specialized group, not just during this special occasion, but ALWAYS.

Thursday you will see literally hundreds of Frocks in the most advanced modes of Autumn—and the same smartness and quality you admire, the same extensiveness of selection, will be the standard maintained in this group at all times. There will be Frocks for all occasions—each an example of what is correct and smart.

These are Frocks that the experienced eye judges immediately as superior in quality and in every detail of finish; their newness, their correctness and originality of style, will instantly commend them to the woman or miss who knows what is smart—and wears it. Remember to come early Thursday morning—for these are Frocks extremely desirable in every woman's Fall wardrobe.

RAILROADS AND UNION AGREE ON ARBITRATION

Wage Demand on Eastern Lines First to Come Under New U. S. Law.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—An agreement to arbitrate the demands for increased pay for conductors, brakemen and switchmen on railroads east of Chicago and north of the Ohio River was signed today by representatives of the railroads and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

The demand is the first to go to arbitration under the provisions of the recently enacted Watson-Parker bill, which provides for a board of mediation for the settlement of wage disputes between the railroads and the brotherhoods.

Although the agreement merely provides for the arbitration of demands as affecting roads east of Chicago and north of the Ohio River, similar wage demands have been made in other sections of the country. These demands are still pending.

W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, declared "future arbitration by the trainmen will depend largely on the degree of justice we receive by this agreement to arbitrate."

Samuel E. Winslow, chairman of the Federal Board of Mediation, said: "After frank, friendly and thorough consideration of the questions involved it appeared that the discussion of the questions involved could not be settled through mediation. All parties interested willingly agreed, at the request of the Board of Mediation, to arbitration proceedings as provided by law. Arbitration proceedings will be in New York at a time and place to be hereafter determined."

The workers had demanded a $1 a day increase over the present rate, which Lee said, was $6.44 a day of 8 hours for conductors, in freight service, and $4.54 a day of 8 hours for brakemen.

Woman Held Prisoner by Son.

By the Associated Press.
GALESBURG, Ill., Aug. 24.—Entering a home here on complaint of neighbors, police found Mrs. Clara Hanson, 55 years old, an invalid, who had been held a prisoner for nearly two years by her son, Carl, 28. Medical care had been denied the woman, police charge. The son was adjudged insane in County Court later in the day and was taken to Watertown Hospital. His mother is receiving needed medical attention at a hospital.

There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve skin irritation, and that makes the skin soft, clear and healthy.

Any druggist can supply you with Zemo, which generally overcomes skin diseases. Eczema, Itch, Pimples, Rash, Blackheads, in most cases quickly give way to Zemo. Frequent use, minor blemishes disappear overnight. Itching usually stops instantly. Zemo is a safe, antiseptic liquid that may be applied at any time, for it does not show. Ask your druggist for a small size 60c or large bottle $1.00.

AUTO FALLS ON MEN
AT WORK IN DITCH

Causes Serious Injury to Two Laborers in Downtown Street Excavation.

Two men were seriously injured at 4 p. m. yesterday, when an automobile was struck by another machine and toppled into a street excavation in which they were working, at Eleventh and Pine streets. They were George Barker, 32, of 1807 Olive street, a bricklayer, who suffered a possible fractured skull, and Robert Johnson, 23, of 1115 Wash street, his Negro helper, whose spine was fractured.

Barker and Johnson had been at work in the bottom of the excavation making a conduit wall for the new Bell Telephone Building. Automobiles driven by Clyde Aubuchon of 3441 Union boulevard and Guy Griffin, 5861 Maple avenue, approached a narrow passageway around the excavation on Pine street, only wide enough to allow one car to pass. They misunderstood each other, they said, each thinking the other would wait, and collided. Griffin's machine going into the ditch.

William Henry, 41, of 4758 Leduc street, last three middle fingers of his right hand at 2 p. m. yesterday when the Ford sedan he was driving collided with the automobile driven by Franklin Wehrle, 17, of 37 Arundel place, at Garfield and Spring avenues and overturned. Broken glass sheared off Henry's fingers.

An automobile driven by Herman Brendel, 3024 Church road, struck Charles Lewis, 72 years old, of 975 Switzer avenue as he was crossing North Broadway at Humboldt street at 2 p. m. and fractured his skull.

Automobiles driven by Mrs. May Giesemann, 2624 South Kingshighway, and Henry Blucher, 4326 Warne avenue, collided at the Prairie avenue entrance to Fairground Park at 2:15 p. m. Blucher's wife, Julia, suffered concussion of the brain and is in a critical condition at city hospital.

Motor Cycle Patrolman Edward Lynch of 2340 Norma Court was standing astride his machine in front of 5103 Page boulevard lecturing a fractious motorist at the curb when he was struck by a westbound automobile driven by Mrs. Rose Birenbaum of 5581 Wells avenue. He suffered internal injuries.

RIPLEY PUBLICITY PLAN FOR CORPORATIONS CAUSES SLUMP Reaction Takes Place in Stock Market in Final Hour of Trading.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The New York Times says that advance copies of an article by Prof. William Z. Ripley, Harvard University economist, to be published in the September issue of the Atlantic Monthly found their way into Wall street yesterday and were partly responsible, in the opinion of Wall street, for the sharp reaction which took place in the stock market in the final hour of trading.

The article urged fuller publicity in the financial affairs of corporations and suggested that the Federal Trade Commission exercise the powers already vested in it to compel the submission of more complete and comprehensible reports.

The fact that individual companies were severely criticized in the article for their failure to keep their stockholders and the public intelligently informed concerning their affairs was emphasized for such strictures were likely to have.

Several months ago excitement was caused in Wall street by the comments of Prof. Ripley on non-voting stocks which led to a change in the policy of the New York exchange in the listing of such stocks.

PAIR MARRIED IN BACK SEAT OF AUTO, PREACHER IN FRONT
To Comply With Connecticut Law, Roadside Ceremony Is Performed at Windsor.

SPECIAL TO THE POST-DISPATCH.
HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 25.—Margaret E. Sampson of Windsor and Clifford E. Young of West Hartford were married Monday night in the back seat of an automobile, while the officiating clergyman, the Rev. E. M. Bussey of the Windsor Locks Methodist Church, sat in the front seat.

The license was obtained from the Windsor Town Clerk, but no Windsor clergyman could be found to perform the ceremony in the town in which the license was issued, as Connecticut law requires. The Rev. Mr. Bussey agreed over the telephone to officiate, so Young and his fiancée drove to Windsor Locks, returned to Windsor with the minister. They parked the car at a corner on the street, turned on the tonneau lights, and the ceremony was performed.

WOMAN HURT WHEN GAS EXPLOSION WRECKS ROOM
Husband Lights Match After Disconnecting Range and Plaster Bursts From Walls.

Lighting a match after a gas range had been disconnected caused an explosion last night in the flat at 1420A Madison street, where a woman was injured by falling plaster.

William Hill, who was moving downstairs, had disconnected the gas stove and carried it to the first floor. Returning with his wife, Estelle, to get other furniture, he lit a match in the dark kitchen. The explosion followed, with plaster bursting from the walls and ceiling. Mrs. Hill was treated for cuts on the forehead and instep. Property damage was estimated at $400.

MARIE OF RUMANIA TO VISIT U. S. AS QUEENNot Traveling Incognito, So Will Be Guest of Nation, Not of Private Persons.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Aug. 25.—Queen Marie of Rumania has within a week received invitations from America from individuals and organizations asking her to be their guests on her visit to the United States. She cannot accept any of these invitations, as she intends to travel as a Queen and not incognito, and thus will be the guest of the nation at large. She will be the guest of the State of Washington probably when she goes there to dedicate a Rumanian room in the museum at Maryhill.

All reports that she has accepted any invitations to be a house guest to private persons are said to be untrue.

The Queen plans to stay in the United States less than two months and wants to see as much of the country and to meet as many people as possible. Her itinerary will be made public Sept. 1.

It is understood, however, that the queen will land in New York and go immediately to Washington to make a courtesy call on President Coolidge. Then she is expected to go to Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Canada, then Yellowstone Park, Yosemite Valley and the Grand Canyon and also to visit Texas where she has many friends whom she made during the war. Among the cities on her tentative calling list are Salt Lake, Denver, St. Louis, Chicago, Detroit, from which she has received invitations, Pittsburgh and Boston.

The Queen is very much interested in the movie industry and has received from Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford an invitation on behalf of all Hollywood to visit that center as the guest of the screen folk. It is possible she will visit New Orleans and Florida at the end of her tour. The Queen's announced intention was to visit every one of the 48 States of the Union if possible. She has said she wished to visit the tomb of Lincoln at Springfield, Ill.

King Ferdinand will not be able to accompany his Queen on her American journey, but she will be accompanied by her daughter. The King celebrated his sixty-first birthday yesterday.

CONFLICTING REPORTS ON U. S.
DRY LAW READ IN GERMANY

Medical Journal Publishes One Item on Crime Decrease, Another About Degeneration.

By Radio to Post-Dispatch and the Chicago Daily News. Copyright 1926.

BERLIN, Aug. 24.—Confusion about the effects of prohibition are as great here as in the United States and the results are as acerbically disputed.

The latest number of the Meunichener medical weekly publishes in the same column American figures showing the falling off of crime in the United States thanks to prohibition and a statement of a German doctor who reports having seen on a visit to America "signs of degeneration" as a result of prohibition, which he declares is merely a fraud on a large scale, with the rich drinking as much as they desire.

Even more important is a statement of Dr. Hindede of Copenhagen known as the foremost apostle of vegetarianism and prohibition. After a trip through the United States and Finland, both dry countries, Hindede announces he is absolutely opposed to prohibition. Danish drys consider this a treacherous stab in the back directed at the anti-alcohol movement in Denmark.

RECOMMENDS IRISH BE SPOKEN

Commission Urges Use in More Intensely Gaelic Districts.

DUBLIN, Aug. 25.—For a year a commission of which Gen. Richard Mulcahy was chairman has sat to inquire into the position of the Irish language in the Gaelic districts. After holding numerous sittings in the Irish-speaking districts the committee has presented a report in which it recommends the establishment of a permanent commission, the exclusive use of Irish in public administration in the more intensely Gaelic districts and provision for special agricultural instruction.

It also advocates the migration of large groups of the inhabitants to more economic holdings, improvements in fishing, fish curing, netmaking and boat building and urges the Government to lend money for the purchase of modern boats and equipment. It is from these districts that the cry of distress is chronic. A bad season drives the people over the starvation line and gives rise to tales of Irish famine.

DROWNED AT WHEEL OF AUTO

Baltimore Man Trapped When Car Plunges Into Harbor.

By the Associated Press.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 25.—Richard C. McCleary, 30 years old, drowned at the wheel of his automobile when the car plunged into the harbor today. His companion, William H. Rea, 28, freed himself and clambered ashore. He was arrested after being treated for minor injuries at a hospital. Police declared that shortly before the plunge, one of the occupants of the car shot at two policemen who cried to them: "Turn on your other light!" Rea denied the shooting charge.

SUPREME COURT DENIES WRIT AGAINST BECKER

Application of Priest-Publisher Sought to Restrain Awards for Political Printing.

Special to the Post-Dispatch
JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 25.—The Supreme Court en banc today denied "without prejudice" the application for a writ of mandamus against Charles U. Becker, Secretary of State, to restrain him from awarding contracts for the publication in newspapers of constitutional and initiative propositions at the maximum rates permitted by law, and to compel him to award them instead to the low bidder. The writs were sought by the Rev. Father John Fugel, a Catholic priest, who publishes a small independent newspaper at Vienna, Maries County. He sought to compel Becker to award the 1926 contracts to the lowest and best bidder in each county.

In a brief supporting the petition it was alleged that profits from the constitutional amendment printing contracts distributed to selected newspapers in each county, exceed in some instances the value of the entire plant of the newspaper receiving the political plum. The law provides that propositions to be submitted to a general election, shall be published for four consecutive weeks in one newspaper in each county. Selection of the newspapers is entirely in the hands of the Secretary of State, which fact has made the contracts of political advantage both in Democratic and Republican State administrations.

BODIES OF TWO FOUND ON RAILROAD TRACK IDENTIFIED

Irondale, Mo., Youths Apparently Fell Asleep On Missouri-Pacific Right-of-Way.
Special to the Post-Dispatch
IRONSARK, Mo., Aug. 25.—The two youths found Monday morning near Mineral Point by the Missouri-Pacific railroad track, with their heads crushed have been identified as Lonnie Lanson, 16 years old, and Edward Hoyer, 19, both of Irondale, Mo.

It has not been fully determined how they met their death. Indications were, however, that they placed their coats on one rail as pillows, fell asleep and were hit by a southbound passenger train.

PEACH YIELD UNDER ESTIMATE

Peak of Harvesting in Centralia District This Week.
Special to the Post-Dispatch
CENTRALIA, Ill., Aug. 25.—The peak of the peach harvesting, started about the middle of July, is expected to be reached the latter part of this week in the Centralia district.

The yield probably will be 25 to 30 per cent less than early estimates. Officials of the Illinois Fruit Exchange said this probably was due to the fact that a very large number of trees were bearing their first commercial crop this year and that an overestimate was made earlier in the season.

HALE-RAMSEY MURDER CASE JURY CAN'T AGREE; DISMISSED

Discharged by Judge After Futile Attempts to Reach Verdict Since Last Friday.
By the Associated Press.
GUTHRIE, Ok., Aug. 25.—The jury in the case of W. K. Hale and John Ramsey, charged with slaying Henry Roan, an Osage Indian, was discharged here today by Federal Judge John H. Cotteral, after reporting it could not agree on a verdict. The case went to the jury last Friday afternoon.

5 HURT AS AUTO OVERTURNS

Mrs. Dave F. Boyd Seriously Injured in Accident Near Kirksville.

KIRKSVILLE, Md., Aug. 25.—Five persons were injured when a touring car in which Mr. and Mrs.

Dave F. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. French Parsons and Richard Hart were riding, turned over near Kirksville.

Sunday night. Mrs. Boyd was taken to a hospital, as she was suffering with severe injuries to the chest and a broken collar bone. The others had only light injuries. The accident was caused by the veering of the car after a tire had blown out.

Quoting Addison

ADDISON, the famous writer of England's 18th century, says this of music: "All of Heaven we have below." Will you deprive those whom you cherish of music and its joys? Perhaps none of them can play a piano. If not, competent teaching, or a player, phonograph or radio, will bring music to your home. Secured here, a musical instrument is a source of entire satisfaction.

COUNDOURIOTIS ANNOUNCES HE AGAIN IS PRESIDENT OF GREECE
Athens, Aug. 25.—Admiral Coundouriotis today announced that he had resumed the presidency of Greece, relinquished when Gen. Pangalos last year overthrew his government and became dictator. Pangalos himself was overthrown last week by Gen. Condylis and is now a prisoner on Aegina Island, two miles out from Athens.
The popular anger against Pangalos made it necessary to transfer him to Aegina Island. Invasion of the military hospital where Pangalos had been detained was threatened by organized mobs.

By the Associated Press.
SOFIA, Bulgaria, Aug. 25.—The heavy cannonade beginning yesterday about 2 p. m., across the Greco-Bulgarian frontier near the village of Alyatovo, southeast of Saloniki, Greece, continued until 7:30 p. m. All communications across the Bulgarian border have been interrupted for several days and little information has filtered across with reference to reports that the garrison at Saloniki had been attacked and that a civil war had broken out.

'FREE SPEECH' OPINIONS DUE FROM HIGH COURT Rulings on Criminal Syndicalism Laws of Three States Expected in October.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Decisions which may be epoch-making in their definition of the terms "free speech" and "free assembly" are expected shortly after the Supreme Court reconvenes in October.

They will construe the criminal syndicalism laws of California, Michigan and Kansas, raised in appeals by Charlotte Anita Whitney, Charles E. Ruthenberg and Harold F. Fiske, respectively, who contended that in attempting to regulate radical propaganda, the states had overstepped the constitutional prohibition against restriction of the inalienable rights of freedom of speech and of assembly.

The Constitution and political activities of the Communist Labor party of America, which Miss Whitney and Ruthenberg were charged with promoting, and of the Industrial Workers of the World, which Fiske was promoting, may receive more than passing notice in the opinion.

Miss Whitney was convicted for participating in the organization at Oakland of the California branch of the Communist Labor party of America, which Miss Whitney participated in the secret convention of the party held in the sand dunes near Bridgman, Mich., and Fiske for working as an organizer of the I. W. W. in Kansas, recruiting new members.

Miss Whitney contended that her influence had been exerted to prevent unlawful acts, although she remained in attendance upon the convention after it had adopted the radical Chicago communist platform; Ruthenberg that the secret convention has been hastily disbanded on the eve of raids by State and Federal agents before any unlawful acts had been committed and Fiske, that the preamble to the I. W. W. constitution, which he was distributing, was not seditious.

The state courts of all three states, in upholding the syndicalism laws, sustained the contentions advanced by the prosecution that membership in and participation at meetings of organizations advocating sabotage, physical violence, arson, destruction of property and other unlawful acts to bring about a change in the form of government by the use of force could be punished without abridging any constitutional right. The defendants contended unsuccessfully that overt acts, and not mere membership in organizations, must be made the measure in determining guilt.

BROTHER DOUBTS THEORY OF MURDER AND SUICIDE
Goes to Clarinda, Ia., After Bodies of Salesman and Girl Are Found in Field.
By the Associated Press.
CLARINDA, Ia., Aug. 25.—The theory of county officers that Thomas E. Anderson, of Council Bluffs, a salesman, shot and killed Miss Elsie Bengt, 17 years old, formerly of Maryville, Mo., and then committed suicide is not fully accepted by a brother, Frank Anderson, of Council Bluffs, who came here after the bodies had been found in a corn field Sunday.

Frank Anderson said he was not convinced it was a case of murder and suicide because there were hardly any powder burns on his brother's body. He added, however, that the family does not propose to attempt to disprove the theory of the county officers.

Anderson had been married for 12 years but he and his wife had been separated for the last year, she living with her son, Will Clouse, of Elmo, Mo.

'MODERN' AND 'CONSERVATIVE' ART TO BE SEPARATED

Individual Displays and Juries Planned for All-Illinois Exposition.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—"Modernists" among Illinois artists will have a room separate from that of the "Conservatives" in the All-Illinois Art Exhibition, which will be held here Sept. 23 to Oct. 16.

Not only will they have a separate room and atmosphere in the galleries, but also a separate jury. The All-Illinois society will not attempt to say that the "Modernists" have produced a higher or a lower art, but merely that they have produced a different class of art from that of the painters and sculptors called "Conservatives."

KILLED AT TABLE BY LIGHTNING
Telephone Lineman Had Stopped at Boarding House to Eat.

Special to the Post-Dispatch
VAN BUREN, Ark., Aug. 25.—Lightning struck and instantly killed Sherman F. Sooter, of Van Buren, as he sat at the dinner table Monday. Sooter, a telephone lineman, was on company business at Hartman, 40 miles from here, and had quit work to eat dinner at a boarding house.
Several other persons were at the table but none was hurt by the bolt that came down the electric light drop cord and struck the lineman. Sooter was 27 years old and is survived by his wife and several relatives at Pangburn, Ark.

Queen of Jugo-Slavia Is Unhappy in Court Life

Former Rumanian Princess Would Rather Devote Her Time to Care of Three-Year-Old Crown Prince.

By the Associated Press. BELGRADE, Aug. 25.—Queen Marie of Jugo-Slavia, daughter of the young Rumanian sovereign in the world, is a timid and melancholy young woman. At the age of 25, she finds herself the ruler of 16,000,000 persons, but separated from them by her ignorance of the language. From the time she was 15 her mother trained her in all modern duties, but she could not teach her daughter to overcome the characteristics which now appear to make her lonely and isolated.

With her husband, King Alexander, son of old King Peter of Serbia, Marie occupies a $2,000,000 palace in Belgrade. But she has extremely simple and democratic tastes, and her friends say she would prefer to live in a small cottage in the country, where she could devote all her time to the care and rearing of her 3-year-old son, Crown Prince Peter II.

Conceals Bobbed Hair. Marie finds the business of maintaining a court irksome and tedious, her friends say, and she therefore seldom entertains or gives receptions. Her one and only interest in life, they declare, is her baby, a handsome, brown-eyed, lively boy, who has an English nurse and American picture books and toys. English is the only language he knows.

The Queen invited the correspondent to tea at the Palace in Belgrade and chatted with him pleasantly about her adopted country and her duties as a Queen. The scene in the Palace when the correspondent entered was anything but regal. A dressmaker's papier-mache form of a female figure covered with a white bodice, appeared in a corner, several trunks remained opened, and personal clothing hung in disarray about the room. Her Majesty apologized for the appearance of the place, saying she and the King had just returned from a long trip into the interior.

A colored handkerchief was worn around her head to conceal her bobbed hair, which she feels does not quite become a Queen.

Prince "Ordinary Boy." The 3-year-old Crown Prince played with a coal-scuttle near the fire, and managed to make himself look like a chimney-sweep.

"He won't even look at his regular toys," said the Queen, "but insists on playing with coal, mud, paint and everything else he ought not to play with. In that respect I suppose he's like any ordinary boy."

When the correspondent suggested that American readers would like to know from her how it felt to be Queen, Her Majesty laughingly said:

"Well, I can tell you there isn't much fun in it. It's sometimes more difficult to be a good mother than a Queen. This baby takes almost all my time, and I have scarcely an hour to devote to court duties, social activities, or anything else. In my girlhood, I thought I'd be content with just being a Princess, but then Fate always spoils most of one's dreams."

"Like my mother, I try to give as much time to charitable and hospital work as I can; but you have no idea how many other things a Queen is called upon to do."

Has Personal Charm. The Queen said one of her greatest problems was to acquire the Serbian language and be able to converse with the peasantry in their own tongue.

"Serbian, like all Slav languages," she said, "is incredibly difficult. Only now, after two years' effort, I am beginning to understand the language when I hear it spoken, but I cannot yet speak it with any facility, and of course I cannot read or write it."

Queen Marie is no longer the buoyant, vivacious youthful girl one knew in Bucharest five years ago. She is now essentially the mature mother, with a more serious outlook in life. Her former girlish bloom, graceful figure and adolescent features have given way to a full, rounded face, that suggests the Teutonic type, a figure that is almost obese, and eyes that convey melancholy and introspection. But the Queen of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes has the same personal charm as of old.

GIRL, 6, SWALLOWS PIN. ANOTHER A FINGER RING. X-ray Examination at Hospital Shows Neither Is in Immediate Danger.

Two small girls are at city hospital, having swallowed foreign objects while at play yesterday.

Lita Eckenfelds, 3, of 4947 Warwick avenue, swallowed a small finger ring.

X-ray examination showed neither child in immediate danger. Doctors hope to remove the objects by medicinal means.

Four Newsdealers Convicted. By the Associated Press. LOS ANGELES, Aug. 25.—Four news vendors were convicted by a jury in Municipal Court here yesterday for selling obscene literature in distributing a San Diego newspaper which contained an article dealing with the disappearance of Alvin Karpis.

The four defendants, John C. Brooks, Manuel Goodman, Sam J. Steinberg and Harry Smith, were instructed to appear for sentence today. Each faces a maximum punishment of $500 fine or six months in jail, or both.

USE OF UNION LABOR IS URGED. Britain Asked to Bar Open Shop in Building New Embassy in U. S. By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Through Sir Esme Howard, British Ambassador, Great Britain has been asked by American labor union officials not to permit the employment of nonunion labor in the construction of the new British embassy building in Washington.

Henry Miller, chairman of the Adjustment Committee of the Central Labor Union, explained that his organization objected to the awarding of the contract to a builder who refused to employ union men.

"We would have no objection," Mr. Miller said, "to the British Government sending over the materials from Great Britain and also sending along the men to do the work, but we do object to any effort to break down American standards by the awarding of the contract to American builders who do not subscribe to those standards and principles."

Children romp on the ocean beach without being coaxed. No one need say "Build castles and dig wells because it's good for you." It's natural for them to like it—and all the better for them because they do.

Children and grown-ups just as naturally like the clean fresh feeling that Kolynos leaves in their mouth. It's a treat—not a task—for them to refresh teeth, gums and mouth with Kolynos. They know it's right for it feels right.

Really clean teeth and gums, with dangerous disease germs killed and washed away—that's the benefit Kolynos brings; and brings pleasantly and without grit.

Try Kolynos tonight. Buy it today. You'll find the Kolynos toilet an easy and delightful habit—a habit of health and happiness. So refreshing!

STREET CAR TRANSFER SALE CAUSES ARRESTS

Two Lawyers Give Bond for Court Appearance. Plan to Test Ordinance.

A young man boarded a west-bound Olive street car at Eighth street at 3 p. m. yesterday, dropped 7 cents into the conductor's box and asked for and received a transfer to the Bellefontaine line. He left the Olive car at Ninth street and promptly sold his transfer for 2 cents to another young man.

A policeman witnessed the transaction and took buyer and seller to Central District Police Station, where they were booked as Victor Packman, 22 years old, lawyer of 2444 A. Utah, and Jesse E. Bishop, 22, lawyer, of 5768 Westminster place. They were released on bond to appear in Police Judge Rosecan's court tomorrow to answer to a charge that they had violated City Ordinance 27887, which makes it a misdemeanor to buy, sell or give away street car transfers, punishable by a fine ranging from $5 to $100.

Expects to Plead Guilty.

The arrests had been arranged by the young lawyers as part of a test case. When the case came up for trial they will admit the facts, plead not guilty to the charge and appeal from their conviction. If convicted, to the Supreme Court, if necessary on the ground the ordinance is class legislation and unconstitutional. They are making it a misdemeanor to buy, sell or give away street car transfers, punishable by a fine ranging from $5 to $100.

"The ordinance is discriminatory because it prohibits traffic in street car transfers but not in bus transfers," Packman said. "It also attempts to make a misdemeanor out of what at most is a breach of contract. No fraud is committed, as the transfer is paid for."

Similar Law in New York.

"If I buy a raincoat or any other article of merchandise I have the right to sell or give it away," Packman said. "If I buy a transfer I should have the same right. The St. Louis ordinance was passed about 13 years ago. A similar ordinance in New York City was knocked out as unconstitutional in 1908."

Although the local ordinance has been on the books for years, little effort to enforce it has been made. Recently the United Railways management caused placards to be displayed in street cars, announcing that violators of the ordinance would be prosecuted.

BOARD TO HEAR FRANKLIN SCHOOL PROTEST FRIDAY

Meeting Is Called After Petition Against Change Bearing 600 Names Is Received.

The protests of parents and children in the Franklin Public School district against the conversion of the school, at Nineteenth street and Franklin avenue, into an intermediate vocational school in September, will be heard by the Committee on Instruction of the Board of Education at a special meeting at 4 p. m. Friday.

The meeting was called by H. F. Fahrenkrog, president of the School Board, following receipt of a petition with 600 signatures. John C. Tobin, chairman of the Instruction Committee, is out of the city, but other members, and President Fahrenkrog, are expected to attend.

In spite of the protests, including a parade of protest by children of the school, the conversion of the building continues. In line with the board's plan to open the vocational school with the beginning of the fall term.

UNABLE TO BELIEVE IN GOD OR BIBLE, WOMAN KILLS SELF

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Worry over religion drove Mrs. Ethel Sweet, 22 years old, mother of a 2-year-old daughter, to kill herself in her Brooklyn home yesterday. Up to a month ago she had never spoken more than casually about religion.

Her husband, Royal Sweet, found a note written by his wife addressed to her mother. It read: "Everybody has tried to do everything for me, but I can't seem to believe. I can't believe in the Bible and I have no faith in God. Forgive me. I could not stand it."

A month ago, Sweet recalls, his wife began to talk of religion at first casually, but later excitedly. One night not long ago she suddenly exclaimed, "I simply cannot believe it, that's all."

French World Flyers Forced Down

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Aug. 25.—One of the airplanes which started yesterday from the Le Bourget airdrome, near Paris, in an attempt to make new world nonstop records, has been forced to land near Linz, Austria.

This plane was piloted by Aviators Pollen and Van Gaudenberg and was headed for Bender Abbas, Persia. The plane piloted by Lieut. Charles and Capt. Wetzler was last reported to be in the air. It was bound for Karachi, India. The third plane had to descend shortly after it rose at Le Bourget.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Mr. Kellogg's present troubles, particularly his dispute with the United States over the new land and oil law, were discussed today at a conference between Secretary of State Kellogg and Ambassador Sheffield, who just home from the Mexican capital.

The Ambassador took with him to the State Department the first-hand details of the religious controversy in the Southern republic, and exact information about the attitude of the Calles Government on this and other questions now disturbing Mexico City circles.

Nominally in the United States on vacation, Sheffield made his first duty. Later he probably will see President Coolidge at P. Smith, N. Y.

Kellogg's Statement.

Secretary Kellogg issued the statement: "Mr. Sheffield is up here on usual leave of absence, and, as usual when Ambassadors return to the United States on leave, he comes to the Department to take over matters connected with mission in Mexico."

"He is not going to resign," the department does not desire him to resign. He is going back to Mexico City at the expiration of leave.

"We have absolute confidence in Mr. Sheffield and there is no disagreement between us. I make these statements because of the which have been published from time to time in the press."

"I cannot discuss details of conference."

It was apparent that the outstanding diplomatic issue under consideration at the conference was the land and oil controversy. A reply to the latest American note protest is awaited, but meanwhile Sheffield was able to give Kellogg an intimate picture of the situation and of the general attitude of Calles and his cabinet toward Washington.

Working in Harmony.

Department officials insist that despite surface indications of disagreement, the Ambassador and the Secretary were working in perfect harmony toward solution of the oil and land problem. Sheffield has indicated he favors a strong stand for protection of American rights, but he had public word of criticism today.

Government Operation in Britain. Where Fast Mail Is Fast. Government Telephones and Telegraph.

Cheap Rates and Good Service. Why It Succeeds.

LONDON, Aug. 18.

It has been so constantly dinned into the ears of Americans at home that Government operation of public utilities is costly and inefficient, as compared with private operation, that visitors are often astounded to learn that in Great Britain not only the postal system, but also the telephone and telegraph systems are owned and operated by the Government, and have been for many years. Accordingly, the following incident may be of interest:

A resident of London received a letter from a London friend at 10 o'clock in the morning. He immediately wrote and posted a reply. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon he received a reply to his own letter. He answered it at once. His answer was received at 11 o'clock that night. In other words, four letters were exchanged in the course of one day by ordinary mail.

Indeed, the writer witnessed an almost equally impressive demonstration of the speed of the British mails. A friend telephoned at 11 a. m. to a member of Parliament, asking for a visitor's pass to the House of Commons, for the session which opened at 3 o'clock that afternoon. When he finished telephoning, he announced that the pass would be mailed at once. In some astonishment, the writer inquired if it could possibly arrive in time to be available that there day. The question about it, because, in order to make quite sure, it had been expressed. "Express" is the local word for special delivery. Actually, the pass was delivered at precisely 1:15 p. m.

True, the rate is slightly higher than in America. Instead of a 2-cent stamp for ordinary letters, the equivalent of a 3-cent stamp is required, and "express" stamps are 14 cents.

It has been the writer's experience that the telephone service in London is as good as that in most American cities, and distinctly superior to that in some. To use a public telephone costs 4 cents against 5 and 10 cents in the United States, and subscription rates are based on an average of 2 cents a call. There is a weekly rate for private residences of half a crown (60 cents).

The telephone service is fully on a par with mail and telegraph service. It is much better than any in the United States. Telegrams from Glasgow and Edinburgh, Scotland, are delivered at London addresses, about 400 miles distant, within 30 minutes after they are sent. London also has a pneumatic tube system which enables messages to be sent and received between distant parts of the city in 10 or 15 minutes.

The rate for telegrams in Great Britain is a shilling (24 cents) for messages of 12 words or less, and 2 cents for each additional word, which is markedly lower than the American rate.

But does it pay? How large a deficit does the British tax payer have to foot at the end of the year? These are the questions one will hear in the United States. Fortunately, the answers are easily given. The following figures are from a statement made a few days ago to the House of Commons by Sir W. Mitchell-Thompson, the Postmaster-General:

For the fiscal year of 1925-26, just closed, the combined postal, telephone and telegraph services showed a net surplus, or profit, figured from a commercial basis, of slightly more than $33,000,000. It was distributed as follows: The postal service showed a surplus of approximately $38,000,000. The telephone service showed a surplus of more than $2,000,000. The telegraph service showed a deficit of something over $4,000,000. The Postmaster-General explained that the surplus from the operation of the telephone services would, properly be reduced during the current year to about $1,000,000, by a deliberate reduction in rates. He also explained that the deficit from the operation of the telegraph service was due to the rapidly growing use of long distance telephones. It will be observed that the comparatively high postal rates are fully reflected in the exceptionally large surplus from that branch, as the exceedingly low telephone and telegraph rates are likewise reflected in the small surplus and deficit, respectively, from those branches. But it must be remembered that the net result from all three is a very comfortable profit.

But what about extensions or improvements? Isn't Government operation notably backward in making them? On the contrary, the postal system is being expanded at an incredible rate, even to the inclusion of unprofitable services which are deemed public necessities. The number of telephones increased 9.1 per cent last year. It should also be borne in mind that interest charges on these improve-

ITALIAN CURRENCY GIVEN IN EXCHANGE

Government Promised to Advance Foreign Money Necessary to Meet the Interest Charges.

CHIASSO, Switzerland, Aug. 25.—Money which Italian industrialists have borrowed in the United States, ostensibly to build up Italian productive power, has by a decree of law, unknown to the outside world, been turned over to the Italian Treasury. It is declared by a group of Italian Liberals opposed to Mussolini's movement.

The decree, which is dated Feb. 10, was issued at the time Count Volpi made his American debt agreement, and when American credit was opened, not only to the Italian State, but to Italian industry through the Italian Institute of Credit. The total amount of American money going to Italy in this form is reported to be about $100,000,000.

Opposition Liberals declare the loans were made largely on the understanding that they were to be used for the purchase of steel, cotton, coal and rubber, but that by the Feb. 10 decree the funds were turned over to the Italian Treasury in exchange for Italian Treasury obligations. The necessary dollars to meet the interest and amortization charges.

The loans were made largely to the Alberto Beneduce, head of the Italian Institute of Credit, and public utilities—an institution founded in 1913, to find capital for the development of Italy.

Beneduce accompanied Count Volpi to America. The Liberals desire to expose the real purpose of the loans is due in part to the bitterness against Beneduce, who formerly was as bitterly antifascist, but went over to Mussolini last spring.

The decree by which the Italian Treasury is declared to have taken in private exchange of credit for the purpose of giving the borrowers loans for their dollars follows:

"Proposed by the Minister of Finance in agreement with the Ministers of Justice and National Economy. It is considered opportune to exchange in gold the loans to foreign money which could have been made abroad through the Institute of Credit for enterprises of public utility."

"We decree that the Ministry of Finance is authorized to acquire from the Institute of Credit, for the purpose of public utility, at an agreed rate of exchange, the result in foreign money of the borrowing operations that the Institute will make abroad. The Ministry of Finance is authorized at the same time to exercise the right to collect the taxes and duties on the loans to foreign money which could have been made abroad through the Institute of Credit for enterprises of public utility."

"We decree that the Ministry of Finance is authorized to acquire from the Institute of Credit, for the purpose of public utility, at an agreed rate of exchange, the result in foreign money of the borrowing operations that the Institute will make abroad. The Ministry of Finance is authorized at the same time to exercise the right to collect the taxes and duties on the loans to foreign money which could have been made abroad through the Institute of Credit for enterprises of public utility."

ALL together, it constitutes a rather good argument for the proposition that Government operation can be made a success when the Government is determined to make it succeed. Doubtless, if it were put under the charge of men who wanted to see it fail, it would fail. But the British Government is sincere about Government operation, and it places men in charge of it who want to make it succeed, and it does succeed, brilliantly. To suggest anything different to a resident of this country would be to render one's sanity open to question.

The fact of the matter is that there isn't a suspicion of sentiment in favor of a return to private ownership. Any political party mad enough to propose it would commit suicide. The present Tory Government is enthusiastic about the success of Government operation, and the only criticism from the Liberal and Labor parties is to the effect that the system is not being extended to other lines rapidly enough. That it will be extended, even under a Conservative Government, is a foregone conclusion. It is only a matter of time and expediency.

MISUSE OF FRANK CAMPAIGN ISSUE IN MARYLAND

Congressman Hill Accuses Senator Weller of Mail- ing Campaign Documents Free.

Postmaster-General New Trapped and Forced to Make Ruling Against the Senator.

Post-Dispatch Bureau.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Maryland free state is witnessing a squall yet amusing battle between Senator E. Weller and Representative John Philip Hill for the Republican Senatorial nomination which will be decided by the primary Sept. 14. Those national problems which one would expect to dominate politics in that enlightened section—the World Court, prohibition, tariff, foreign debts and state's rights issues—have been completely submerged by one outstanding personal question, namely, which of the two candidates has been the less guilty in abuse of the congressional franking privilege?

Past the retort courteous stage, the rivals have sought to besmirch each other rather than to attempt to justify their own actions. The pot has called the kettle black and has made no effort to clean itself. The kettle is now in kind.

How the Row Started.

Hill charged Weller with sending unfrankable personal letters in franked senatorial envelopes. Weller first denied the allegations, but later admitted some personal letters franked under his name. He declared, however, that Hill had lost the postoffice department of the necessary dollars to meet the interest and amortization charges.

World-Known Botanists Meet Here

strated the unusual system of shades in the new orchid houses in the 1500-acre extension garden at Gray's Summit. Prink, manipulating the shades on one whole side of a 100-foot greenhouse with one which showed how they could be raised or lowered in less than a minute.

"When I do this," he remarked, "I remember how I used to pull up one little shade at a time at Kew Garden, hauling in the cord hand over hand 20 years ago—and I believe you still do it the same way."

Dr. Hill remarked upon the thousands of showy orchids just moved out there. The great collection at Kew is greatly as it is less showy varieties, of botanical interest. He walked through the garden to the edge of the wildflower reservation. It was a day of brilliant skies and crystal atmosphere, and he stood for a long time on the bluff overlooking the river and miles of the Meramec Valley.

Opportunity for Landscaping.

"There is a place for a man's life work," was his earnest comment when he returned to St. Louis. "I was greatly struck with the beauty of the place. It is fine, undulating country, and it offers a remarkable opportunity for landscaping."

"We also have been forced to seek a site away from the city for confiners, although the smoke has not damaged the place upon such beauty as we have here—," he nodded toward the vista before him—"and learn what there is to learn botanically."

"The system of labels is an excellent one. Every visitor to the garden can see at a glance just what it is he is admiring. We have the same system at Kew."

"Again, I like your idea of the walls. The Englishman's idea of a garden, at least, is that it should be cut off from the vulgar outside world," he smiled, and went on to say that he had seen on the wall that it should be as this one, a place where anyone may come for contemplation undisturbed. The fine botanical garden in New York is terribly marred, from that point of view, by racing, raucous automobiles.

He was not long in reverting to what appeared to be his point of greatest admiration. "It is truly remarkable," he said, "that you can grow these tropical lilies in the open. We have to rear them in greenhouses here. And I noticed, too, that the Japanese lotus and the American lotus both grow in the open in this garden." It is the native lotus which grows in such profusion in Upper Creve Coeur Lake as to hide the banks in winter.

In some cases, however, the situation was reversed. As Dr. Hill made the rounds with Dr. George T. Moore director of Shaw's Garden, and George H. Prink, its horticulturist, he saw greenhouses that grew outdoors at Kew.

"There's something very proud of," remarked Prink with a smile, indicating a "monkey puzzle" in the Linnaean House, said to be the only tree a monkey cannot climb. "It's nearly six feet high."

"Yes, I noticed that," retorted Dr. Hill. "And do you remember those just outside one of the houses at Kew, 40 feet tall?"

NEW TYPE OF FORD PREDICTED IN VIEW OF FALL IN SALES

Detroit Plant Running Only 65 Per Cent of Capacity as Result of Heavy Competition.

WOMEN'S TASTE AND FORD JOKES FACTORS

More Stylish Lines and Selective Gear Shift Suggested, but Head of Plant Is Silent.

Special to the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

DETROIT, Aug. 25.—While New York and the rest of the country has been watching the market actions of General Motors, Detroit, the home of the motor industry, is watching Henry Ford and awaiting with keen interest a new move by him.

This move, Detroit believes will be the announcement of radical changes in the well-known flivver, including, possibly, six cylinders instead of four and the building of a car with selective gear shift instead of the planetary system of transmission to which Ford has clung all these years.

The changes, against which Ford has fought many persons in his organization, including his son Edsel, will be announced, it is believed, within 60 days, as his answer to the challenge of other low-priced cars which have so far cut into his sales that the big Ford factories are now running only 40 hours a week and turning out about 65 per cent of capacity.

How serious the challenge is may be judged from the fact that where as Ford for years turned out more than one-half of all the automobiles produced in the country, his production in May, when General Motors was piling up some of the big surpluses has just distributed in the form of a stock dividend, was below 35 per cent. Sales for June, as reflected in registrations, are placed by a national statistical organization as 35.5 per cent of the total.

Chevrolet and Dodge Gain.

The chief beneficiaries of the competition have been Chevrolet, the best seller of the General Motors line, and the Dodge, built by former members of the Ford organization.

In the six months ending June 30, 1926, Ford sold 138,676 cars, the best information available, worth 1,153,100. In the first six months of 1926 the total is placed at 746,412. In the first six months of 1925 Chevrolet sold 277,101 cars. In the first six months this year the total of Chevrolet sales was 423,842.

Dodge in the first six months of 1925 sold 138,676 cars. In the first six months of this year the Dodge organization sold 200,115 cars.

Linked with reported impending changes in the Detroit's automobile world is the retirement of Ernest C. Kanzler as vice president of the company, and the long absence of Edsel Ford from Detroit.

Kanzler, who is married to the sister of Mrs. Edsel Ford, resigned in July. His resignation was followed by the falling of many heads in the Ford plants and the return in first line prominence in the organization of Charles E. Sorenson, Sorenson, the man who developed the Ford tractor, next to Ford himself is rated as the hardest driver in the company.

According to Edsel Ford and the statement given out at the works, Kanzler retired to take up special work with Edsel. Just what this is to be has yet to be announced. His office was removed from the big plant to the smaller one in Dearborn where Edsel has his headquarters. There the matter rests. Meantime there is unusual activity in the tool department of the Ford organization. This is the department upon which the strain of new production and new lines would first be felt.

Nothing on the changes that may be contemplated is permitted to come from the Ford offices. Ford is inaccessible to inquirers, who are advised that while it is impossible for him to see visitors now, conditions may be changed by Nov. 1.

Call Is for "Sheik Car."

For the drop in the sales of Ford and the increases in the sales of other low-priced cars, the one real cause is the demand for a "sheik car." By a "sheik" car, Detroit means one more decorative than the Ford.

NEED OF CITY AIR PORTS

Second Assistant Postmaster-General Says Mail Service Development Is Delayed.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The progress of commercial aviation is making the development of municipal air ports necessary, in the opinion of W. Irving Glover, Second Assistant Postmaster-General, in charge of the Air Mail Service.

While cities in various parts of the country have such facilities, he pointed out that many others, including New York and San Francisco, have not made preparations for the advancement of the new method of transportation. Inauguration of air mail service between Seattle and Los Angeles has been delayed because the army authorities cannot permit the contractor to use Crissy Field at San Francisco, and Concord Field is occupied by the Transcontinental Air Mail Service.

KING RECEIVES ENVOY AT LAST

U. S. Minister Had to Wait Because Danish Ruler Was Vexed.

Copyright, 1926, by the Press and Publishing Co., (New York World and Post-Dispatch).

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 25.—King Christian X of Denmark yesterday received H. Perceval Dodge, the new United States Minister, after making him wait three weeks. The envoy lasted 10 minutes and is understood to have been friendly. Afterward Dodge and his wife were received by the Queen.

Dodge was to have arrived in time to make a Fourth of July speech. The King broke several engagements to receive him at that time, but for some reason not explained the envoy was delayed and failed to appear. The King was greatly vexed.

REMIIND CHINA OF DEBT TO U. S.

American Officials Object to Surplus Revenue as Loan Security.

By the Associated Press.

PEKING, Aug. 25.—The United States legation today lodged with the Foreign Office an emphatic protest against the proposed use by the Chinese Government of customs revenue surplus, soon to become available, as security for a new domestic loan to the detriment of American creditors.

The protest names 21 American concerns whose Chinese accounts are in arrears and reminds the Government of its obligation toward them. The legation asserts that the proposed action means further failure to observe good faith in its transactions with Americans.

ROMAN WAR RELICS NEAR YORK

Excavations in Britain Uncover Bases for Ballistae.

By the Associated Press.

YORK, England, Aug. 25.—Excavations in the old Roman defenses have brought to light the bases of several ballistae or Roman artillery. The ballistae were used to throw great stones, some of which have been found.

The relics are believed to antedate Boadicea, the British Queen who led a rebellion against Rome in rule in Britain.

THE POST-DISPATCH FORUM.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress or reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be decisively independent; never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

For a Metered Water Service.
 To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
 I am writing to you to urge the St. Louis water supply, Director of Public Utilities Pritchard is trying to do his fellow citizens a vital service, but there is no chance that they will accept his recommendations.

The undersigned, Mr. Wall, recommended in 1912 that we meter our water supply. South St. Louis almost lynched Mr. Wall for his recommendation. In his 1921 report Mr. Wall showed that if the people had put themselves on meters in 1912 they could have had all the water they needed, but would have saved, or paid for, 20 per cent of water pumped, clarified, purified and wasted. This saving, Mr. Wall showed, would have enabled the city to start construction of the new waterworks on the Missouri River in 1912, when construction costs were low, and could have been constructed for $7,000,000 by 1916, the Hooker's Bend plant, which will cost $12,000,000 when finished under current high cost of construction in 1926.

So by refusing to put themselves under meters St. Louisans literally throw $12,000,000 into the Mississippi River.

ENGINEER.

A Bad Precedent.
 To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
 On various electric light standards there appears a placard to which is attached the national colors advertising a new theater.

The writer would like to know just what connection there is between a commercial enterprise and the national colors, and why these colors for which brave men have fought and died should be desecrated in this manner.

A. W. L. GORDON.

Traffic Obstructions.
 To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
 WE RETURNED, a few days ago, from a trip through parts of Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana and Michigan. I noticed a few things that seem to me to be worth telling about how traffic is handled.

In La Salle and some other places, that had custom all-night parking in the streets is forbidden. If the cars are not put away by midnight and kept off the streets till daylight, the owner is fined. In many places there are little iron "bumps" where the center lines of the intersecting streets cross. The short right turn and the long left turn must be made in complete view and have no signals, which, by the way, are lighted at night. This is a move in the right direction, obviating many accidents. This is the rule in Los Angeles, Cal. too.

The blinding headlights that cause so many accidents and so much pain to those who have to endure them have no means as right here at home and in the county. The people seem to have learned that the strong beam should fall on the road, not squirt up into the eyes of people they meet. The custom of dimming the headlights is observed, usually.

In Illinois the drivers keep to the right. In some parts of Indiana, the people, especially the country people, seem to prefer to drive right in the middle of the road and seem to hate to move over and let a fellow who is in a hurry, pass by. They usually give those they meet plenty of room for safety.

We drove approximately 1500 miles in the 19 days we were away and found the roads wonderfully good except in Southern Michigan and Southern Indiana. Some of these were bad as many were being worked.

Build Another Bridge.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
 I DO NOT see one iota of hope coming to the shipper and manufacturer in St. Louis from the proposed award of bridge rights. I have heard for years the prophesy, now almost axiomatic: "The Terminal will get the Free Bridge." And when I read the provisions set forth in the Chamber of Commerce compromise plan I feel that this prophesy is being given a try-out with an eye to merely scratching the surface. Reading it closely, it looks like cutting the eyes of the people's rights with their eyes wide open and I am dismayed to think of what the great Compromiser might say should he awaken and hear this proposal called a compromise.

Build another free bridge at Olive Street with an electric tunnel through rapid transit to connect East St. Louis and our city. Have this bridge built with an eye to the future and away from the type of the "split of 78" such as is the Eads Bridge. Keep it free for vehicles, street cars, and passengers. Eliminate the old car from the plan altogether, but let it be a giant free causeway forever dedicated to friendliness and civic oneness between East St. Louis and our city. Join east and west rapid transit lines with north and south lines in a single line close to Twelfth street square or on the old court house site. I make this suggestion because in 20 years there should be several bridges and maybe a subway or two to meet the demands at that time.

PETER B. GIBSON.

BUILD THE SUBWAYS.

St. Louis, like Boston, is an oversized city with undersized streets. It is quite as large as Boston, which has been using subways for years. The plans of the city engineers contemplate putting all street cars underground in the downtown district east of Nineteenth street, and the engineers estimate that they can do this with an increase of only one-half cent in fare.

The Post-Dispatch hopes that no time will be lost in adopting some such plan and setting to work. With a fast-growing city and a constantly swelling volume of traffic, street cars in the downtown section have become an obstruction. We must get rid of them. Fortunately, the subway idea has not come to St. Louis until we need it. We have not had to wrangle over it for twenty years, as Chicago has, just because some other cities have subways.

Once started, the St. Louis subway system will penetrate to the edge of town. We can then have rapid transit into the city, something happily freed from the innumerable obstructions which make getting into the city over crowded highways more and more of an annoyance. Present plans project the system as far west as Walton avenue, but as the scheme develops they will dispose to go farther west than that. The success of suburban dwelling in St. Louis County depends upon rapid transit to the city, and that movement has by this time gone too far to be deprived very long of its corollary.

At any rate, the downtown subways should be built at once. The old French who built downtown St. Louis never foresaw street traffic in any volume. The width of the average downtown St. Louis street from curb to curb compares with that of some of the picturesque cities of Southern Europe. They cannot be widened, as some of the streets are being widened west of Twelfth street, and we must therefore take the lumbering and obstructive street car off them.

Only subways will do that.

THE REWARD OF GENIUS.

The line of penniless geniuses will please form on the right. Something is to be handed out. No, not a shower of comestibles from the Ladies' Aid; not an order on Blank & Co., Leading Gents' Furnishers; not tickets to the Dempsey-Tunney fight. Nothing so sordid as any of these. A nice burial! The League of Fostering Genius (of New York, though it's a wonder Los Angeles didn't think about it) has bought an acre where poverty-stricken geniuses may be laid to rest without the payment of a penny.

Around the plot will be a marble coping bearing the names of the donors.

Here, we are sure, is the fulfillment of a long-felt want. And what a satisfaction it must be to the geniuses, to know how nicely they are to be put away! With the names of their benefactors all around them!

EUGENE VS. WILLIAM HARRISON.

Those two great authors, Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney, are engaging in murderous literary rivalry in the pages of the Post-Dispatch. Up to the present Tunney has the better of Dempsey by 10,862 words to 9847, but Dempsey, even without the gibb/Kearns to inspire him, is running a strong race. It is reported that Dempsey, in an effort to catch up, has employed Elinor Glyn as a sparring partner. And Dempsey is heartened by the rumor that Tunney, whose hands never were too good, is suffering from writer's cramp. The boys' well-wishers, however, would not like to see the contest terminated by any such fortuitous circumstance. As Henry Arthur Jones might say to H. G. Wells, may the longest-winded man win.

Some interesting critiques might be written about the respective styles of the two authors. From yesterday's round, we call this little excerpt of Dempsey's as a classic example of the early Dinosaur school: "Tunney won't be able to keep me on the floor if he hits me on the 'potato' a thousand times. I'll get up if I have to take the ring with me." And don't you think, dearie, there's something of the hairy flavor of Walt Whitman in this of Tunney's: "Dempsey never knocked out a really good man in his lifetime. He's bumped over a lot of bums, but," etc.

The boys are going great guns. Kid Dante and Battling Homer had better look to their laurels.

THE PIONEERS AND LOREE.

Who among the builders of the three railroads ever imagined the combination pictured in the map advertising the proposed Loree southwestern system? Not the builders of the Katy, surely. They planned, and built, a line from the cattle ranges of Texas to the Chicago stockyards, via Hannibal and a connection with the Burlington. The St. Louis line, along the Missouri River from Booneville, was an afterthought. But it became the main line, and the freight brakeman no longer has to share his caboose nightly with the cowpuncher.

The Cotton Belt's builders, surely, had little thought of a union with the Katy, when they drove their line west to the east of the Ozarks, as the Katy is to the west of the same hills. Here, too, the entrance to St. Louis was, if not an afterthought, at least a later event. And we may be sure that Arthur Stillwell was thinking in terms of Kansas City's greatness when he laid his road due south to the Gulf, with the Splitlog railroad, built from Neosho to Joplin by a Shawnee Indian, as its basis. But rail development has given a new meaning to Tennyson's words, "Our little systems have their day." Let them should "cease to be," they have been and are being made into bigger systems, and the Loree plan is both interesting and straightforwardly presented.

ADVERTISING AND THE FLAG.

While the display of the American flag over the banners carrying an advertisement of the new Ambassador Theater makes a picturesque and pleasing combination, draped on light and other poles, and the opening of this great playhouse is an event of which St. Louisans are proud, the protests against the use of the flag in connection with advertising are well taken.

"In the meaning of the Federal law regarding the use of flags in connection with trademarks," says the Americana Encyclopedia, "it has been determined that the flag must not be used in connection with advertising matter of any kind."

It is a good rule, and the present display to which some citizens are objecting, is a bad precedent. It is being said that foreigners doing business here are too often guilty of this misuse of the flag. The Department of Justice has issued a special warning against such action. The national colors may be used lavishly on any occasion, although they should never be placed where they may be dragged in the mud or trampled upon. But the flag itself is sacred. The law provides penalties for its desecration.

AMERICA'S SHOE SUPREMACY.

The importation of boots and shoes to this country from Europe increased 63 per cent during the first six months of 1926, over that of the corresponding period of 1925.

This is one of the commodities, in this land of abnormally high tariffs, which enter free of duty. It is well, therefore, to analyze what bearing this large increase in importation percentage has on our own manufacturing industry.

There were 570,808 pairs of leather boots and shoes imported the first six months of 1926. Their value was $1,691,283, or $2.61 per pair. Embraced in these imports are a large volume of cheap leather moccasins and children's shoes, which pulls down the average price. Great Britain sent us one-eighth the total amount at the high price of $8.10 per pair. While Austria's cheap consignments averaged only $1.10 per pair. Czechoslovakia and Austria, however, rose from one-half per cent of the total importations in 1925 to 20 per cent and 15 per cent of the total, respectively, in 1926.

Plainly enough, a million-odd pairs of imported duty-free shoes for 1926 will make a barely perceptible scratch on our vast production, for in 1925 the United States produced 22,553,055 pairs of boots and shoes. We exported 8,838,000 pairs, valued at $2.21 per pair. Therefore, we manufactured 315 pairs for every pair imported, and we sold our exported shoes at 40 cents a pair less than we paid for our imported ones.

It is an interesting side light that 21 boot and shoe factories in St. Louis alone—there are 87 factories in the so-called St. Louis district—manufactured in 1924, 53,019,094 pairs of boots and shoes.

It is evident from the above figures that America's duty-free boot and shoe industry is not threatened by European manufactures, in spite of the tremendous disparity in labor costs in favor of every country abroad, and particularly of Southern Europe.

We lead and will continue to lead at home as well as in the competitive foreign markets, due to the genius of American organization methods, supported to the full limit by mass production machinery.

THE END OF WOOD BLOCKS.

Mr. Brooks, Director of Streets and Sewers, says the city is done with wood-block paving. There was on Monday a dash of rain out on De Baliviere avenue which took the wood-block pavement with it, whereat the city threw up its hands.

It is high time. Perhaps there is such a thing as a satisfactory wood-block street. If so, we have done the wood block a terrible injustice in never having built one. Long after every automobile driver had cast it into utter limbo, long after everybody had come to wonder why the city continued to build wood-block streets against the judgment of children even, this municipal farce continued to hold the stage and go through with its solemn make-believe.

We congratulate the city. They are congratulations which we have had on ice for twenty years. Time and again we have taken them out and dusted them off in the expectation of being able to deliver them. We do so now. We believe they are still good. We will wager that they are better than wood-block streets. Meanwhile, who will tell us the story? Who will explain by what political necessity we were bound to keep on building wood-block streets? What was it the makers of wood blocks knew about us?

RUBBER POSSIBILITIES.

George Jerome Beaumont, in a letter printed in yesterday's Post-Dispatch under the head, "Madagascar as a Rubber Source," states that the United States, as the greatest rubber consumer, possesses no territory on which rubber can be raised. He suggests that the French war debts to this country be canceled in exchange for the French colonial island of Madagascar, lying off the southeast coast of Africa.

We fear Mr. Beaumont has overlooked ex-Premier Clemenceau's letter to President Coolidge, in which was embodied the unpleasant insinuation that America's hidden ambition lay in the direction of acquiring French colonial possessions in trade for the debt. This, the "Tiger" said, would never be.

Let us also point out that today the United States does possess in the Moro Island of Mindanao of the Philippine Islands 85,000 square miles of the finest potential rubber lands in the world. The population of this territory is less than 14 to the mile.

Whether we give the Philippines independence, which we have pledged them, in the near future, or later, does not alter the importance of the fact that our 26 years of intimate association with the Filipino has resulted in building up valuable and direct ocean trade routes with the islands, and that, under this impetus, prosperity has come to the Philippine peoples.

Carmel Thompson, the President's personal representative, now in those islands, has in mind the diplomatic solution of the rubber situation as one of his major problems.

We submit to Mr. Beaumont that our urgent need nationally for an independent rubber supply can be more easily met in the direction of the Philippines, through negotiations with the Philippine Legislature, than toward the more inaccessible Madagascar.

SPIES WANTED.

The United States Government, which now employs hordes of spies and snoopers, is asking for volunteers from the population at large, and is offering handsome inducements. Spies furnishing original information resulting in the seizure of rum-running boats will be awarded 25 per cent of the fines imposed on the captured vessels; also 25 per cent of the sum obtained by the Government from sale of the boats. We suppose they will also be allowed to share the seized hooch with the official agents. In these latter days, this is what we'd call a 100 per cent American occupation.

Six persons failed on Monday to swim the English Channel, which shows how the Scotch feel now about paying to ride of a ferry.

THE REWARDS OF VIRTUE.

Virtue is no longer its own reward. The prohibition harbor patrol is to make it worth our while to help enforce prohibition. Spot a rum boat and you get 25 per cent of the fines imposed, plus 25 per cent of the sale price of the boat. Spot four rum boats, and you get one, we presume. (Four times 25 per cent equals 100 per cent, or one boat.) Spot a fleet of them and you can be your own Shipping Board. Let Gertrude Ederle swim the Channel for a roadster, if she wants. Cast your eye over New York Harbor long enough, and soon you will own a yacht, and have the money to buy an anchor for it. The idea might well be extended. Graded rewards might be offered for original information as to murders, arson, etc. Offer a suitable honorarium for news about rum-running automobiles. If a home-brew dispensary is squashed through some one's efforts, give him at least a canful. In that way, we will all be virtuous and busily happy snooping on everyone else.

We agree with one of the gentlemen on our left that a winning ball team is a thing of beauty. But it should not be a joy forever. The joy should last only one year. It was, we believe, the "joy forever" idea that kept us from a pennant since the last was won—sometime before the war.

As dead issues, prohibition, the World Court and the League of Nations are three of the liveliest corpses we have seen in many a day. The customary procedure seems to be to declare them dead issues and then, use up the campaign proving it.

The President of the National Grange says that Europe's plight is due to drink. Then he adds that the farmers, who favor the Volstead act, are in a sorry mess. The rule works two ways, or figure it out for yourself.

A young lady in New York married a motorcycle policeman who reprimanded her for the way she drove her machine. Wonder if that groom has a machine of his own?

The only thing we cannot figure out about a prize fight, after reading what the proposed contenders have to say of each other, is why two such amateurs are ever allowed in the ring.

The injunction against police interference with Sunday baseball in Philadelphia having failed, the National League team might contend that it is not baseball.

The League for Fostering Genius has bought a burial plot in which to bury penniless geniuses. One hundred million people in the United States now know that even though they die broke, they are certain of a grave.

NOTES ON TEXAS.

Sir: The old Texas Ranger who was characterized by a bow in his legs from long hours in the saddle has descendants with legs bowed from straddling stools at drug store fountains for a like period.

The Texas Ranger is still present, I learn, although knowingly I have not met one. Too, he has the reputation of straight-from-the-shoulder honesty. The other evening I questioned a bootlegger who was new to me on the purity of the goods he offered. "Absolutely pure," he said. Then with a knowing and confidential wink he added, "This stuff is safe. It's made by a Ranger." Thus assured, I tried a pint and lived through it. The taste was somewhat raspy, but I had no headache the next morning.

These hot nights one sees quite a few side-arms worn by the countless men. One came into the hotel lobby this evening wearing palm beach trousers and with a 22 automatic holstered to his right hip. I should have liked to engage him in conversation, but his girl was on his left arm. I am always polite to armed men. I deduce from the newspapers, though, that these people are very poor shots. There is a story featured in today's wherein a man emptied his revolver trying to hit either his friend or his own wife. The three were in one room, but all the husband could hit was the pianist. The whole affair can be straightened out in a few days by plugging the holes in the walls, then papering.

SUGGESTIONS TO CHANNEL SWIMMERS.

Miss Barrett, on her second attempt at swimming the Channel, entered the water on the English side. That will not convince the French, as they did not see her get into the water. The proper plan, we believe, is to swim half way across for either shore and then back again.

If a few more people take Bishop Leonard to task for his remarks about Al Smith, the Bishop may decide to confine his efforts to church work, leaving some more competent care-takers in charge of the Constitution and the flag.

The Director of Streets and Sewers rightly believes that the new electric light poles are sufficiently decorative in themselves without the addition of signs, banners, placards or what have you.

The MIRROR OF PUBLIC OPINION

This column is designed to reproduce without bias the latest comment by the leading publicists, newspapers and periodicals on the questions of the day.

VOILSTEADISM AT THE PRIMARIES.

From the New York World.
 THERE is no reaction against prohibition in the first 25 states that have held congressional and state primaries—Wayne Wheeler.

This modest assertion follows the defeat of the Anti-Saloon League candidates for lieutenant governor, secretary of state and attorney general in the Ohio primaries. It follows a sweeping defeat of the drys in Missouri, where, by the latest tabulation, the prohibition candidates in the entire State polled 153,132 votes and the anti-prohibitionists 330,245 votes. It comes upon the heels of the victory of Melvin J. Maas, an outspoken anti-prohibitionist of the St. Paul district in the Minnesota Republican primaries, and the nomination of another anti-prohibitionist Republican in the Duluth district. Mr. Wheeler does not need to be reminded of what happened in Pennsylvania to Governor Pinchot. In fact, with nominations in New York, Maryland, Massachusetts and other States looming up before him, Mr. Wheeler seems to be willing to keep up his courage.

PASS THE PIE.

From the Springfield (Mass.) Republican.
 WHAT does Mr. Insull do politically, when he comes East? Here are Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia and Indiana before one reaches Illinois at all. We are immediately interested in New England. The question arises whether Mr. Insull is a generous contributor in every State where he has power properties? In Illinois he favored candidates of both parties with his checks. Presumably, if he felt concerned in the current political contests in New York, or New Hampshire, or Massachusetts, he would take care that his sides were remembered. Most important to remember is that Mr. Insull, as an expeller of power resources, in this sort of a man, makes his money talk in both parties.

FLORIDA AND TAXATION.

From Manufacturers' Record.
 CALLING attention to the fact that widows or beneficiaries of a Florida estate are not called upon by that State to pay any taxes, this circular (issued by a Florida company) says: "In 45 states of the Union the dead man's absolute rights of disposal are made null and his expressed wishes forever silenced; these states first exact their toll from the dead man's estate before his beneficiaries receive the pro rata amounts specified by him." . . . In the light of the figures given as to state inheritance taxes, it is not surprising that many people are making Florida their permanent home not only because of its many other advantages, but in order to escape the heavy burden of taxation upon their estates.

"CHEERY," vibrant Carmen sent her near phrases hitting up the Municipal Theater hillside last night, in the first of seven scheduled performances of the Blumfeldt production, under the Goltzman management.

Everybody is out of town—some 6000 saw the opening performance of the dragons, and sympathized with Micaela, the blonde whom one young gentleman did not seem to prefer. Almost as many stayed until the last moonlit exit at 11:30 or so.

This is the second "Carmen" production in three seasons under the Goltzman auspices. Like the 1924 "Carmen," this one has a big vocal chorus, a ballet of advanced dancing musicians, and principal soloists and operatic standing scenic effects are adequate and the entrance of the principals in the last act is a little horse show, with white team and glossy bay out riders.

Sunshine of Smugglers' Row. But to return to Carmen herself. Doane—lovely name; must be the gratifying misappellation "Jaxon"—put more sunshine and less brooding tragedy into her role than its traditions prescribe. She was no sorceress, wielding mystic spells, but a big, handsome girl whom a dragon might adore at first sight. She carried her lover through the desperate adventure of his desertion in spirit of banter. The fickle one with which Carmen craves. Doane from her heart fitted this light treatment of the role. Even in the moments of hating doom, her was hardly more than the careless shrug of one who feels herself out of luck.

Her beautifully sung and interestingly acted performance was complemented by a Don Jose who sang with equal charm, but who made no effort to get away from the somber traditions of his role. He was J. de Gaviria, Spanish tenor, who sang the Italian tongue in his responses to Miss Jaxon's clearly enunciated English. Presently the love triangle became a linguistic triangle for Jose Royer sang the role of Escamillo in French.

Have a Care, Jose. The Don Jose of De Gaviria, an earnest soldier, not a compeller, but a savage in his treatment of the coquette who abandoned him, and at the end, hardly less than a madman. His chastening violence, as he hurled the gypsy lass against a bale of smuggled goods in Act 3, was the most realistic sort.

Royer's Escamillo was so Spanish a figure that he might have been a Zuloaga, can't be denied. The condition of the torero was less impressive than his was to the smugglers' camp, where he was easily a dominant character.

Miss Vettori's Micaela was a figure of the performance of years ago. She covered well range from the placidity and coquetry of the first visit to the despair and resignation of her last meeting with Don Jose.

A Superior Officer.

The big Capt. Zuziga of Chicago's police was most likable, role, handled by him, might be of a police captain—what of soldiers, anyway, are those who have to arrest girls for disturbing the peace? No less entertaining were Carmen's boy friends, the smugglers, played by George Hanovsky and Constantino S. They used English, though the king was heavy. Elizabeth, another of the 1924 cast, and E. Corner sang charmingly the parts of the girl friends, Frasquita and Mercedes.

A children's chorus in Act 3, though not always seen in productions of this opera, was interpolated for the book. "Chorus des Gamin's." The dance interlude came in the form of a little Lillian Ogden and de laPorte as premier dancers. Preparations for the last act, a rather wearying time, and the fashion of small-town party audiences, to start the show.

With the amplifiers not in place, the theater was thrown on its natural acoustics, as in earlier seasons. People in the per sections said they could pretty well hear. It was announced that the smaller will be used for the rest of the week.

Vittorio Versa presided as auctioneer. Tonight Riccardo Ma Metropolitan tenor, will sing Jose, and Marta Wittkowsky, soprano, will sing Carmen, with the remainder of the cast unchanged.

New Head of Sacred Heart O.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Mary Joseph Butler, president of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, has been unanimously elected superior general of the Order of the Sacred Heart of Mary. The election was last Saturday by the general assembly at the mother house of the order in Bexiers, France, to the vacancy caused by the death of Mrs. Rita Constance last year. This is the first time any French woman has been elected superior general since the order was founded in 1860. Her headquarters will be in France.

CARMEN, OR THE LASS WHO LOVED A SOLDIER

Cherry Portrayal of Title Role Features Opening Performance in Forest Park.

By CARLOS F. HURD.

A CHERRY, vibrant Carmen sent her clear phrases hitting up the Municipal Theater hillside last night, in the first of seven scheduled performances of the Blue Bird under the Gollitman management.

Everybody is out of town—yet some 6000 saw the opening evolutions of the dragoons, and sympathized with Micaela, the blonde whom one young gentleman did not seem to prefer. Almost as many stayed until the last moonlit exit, at 11:30 or so.

This is the second "Carmen" production in three seasons under the Gollitman auspices. Like the 1924 "Carmen," this one has a big volunteer chorus, a ballet of advanced dancing students, an orchestra of St. Louis musicians, and principals of merit and adequate standing. Scenic effects are adequate and the entrance of the principals in the last act is a little horse show, with white team and glossy bay out-riders.

Sunshine of Smugglers' Row. But to return to Carmen herself. Lorna Doone—lovely name!—she did the greatest misalliance of the century—put more sunshine and brooding tragedy into her role than its traditions prescribe. She was no sorceress, wielding mystic spells, but a big, handsome girl whom any dragon might adore at first sight. She carried her lover through the desperate adventure of his desertion in a spirit of banter. The fickleness with which Carmen erases Don Jose from her heart fitted this light treatment of the role. Even in the moments of boding doom, her air was hardly more than the careless shrug of one who feels herself out of luck.

Her beautifully sung and interestingly acted performance was complemented by a Don Jose who sang with equal charm, but who made no effort to get away from the somber traditions of his role. He was J. de Gaviria, Spanish actor, who used the Italian tongue in his responses to Miss Jaxon's clearly enunciated English. Presently the love triangle became also a linguistic triangle, for Joseph Royer sang the role of Escamillo in French.

His chastening violence, as he hurled the gypsy lass against a bale of smuggled goods in Act 3, was of the most realistic sort.

Royce's Escamillo was no Spanish figure that he might have stepped out of a Zuloaga canvas. His rendition of the torero song was less impressive than his visit to the smugglers' camp, where he was easily a dominant character.

Miss Vettori's Micaela was a feature of the performance of two years ago. She covered well the range from the placidity and faint coquetry of the first visit to the despair and resignation of her later meeting with Don Jose.

A Superior Officer. The big Capt. Zuniga of Charles Gallagher was most likable. The role, as handled by him, might be that of a police captain—what sort of soldiers, anyway, are those who have to arrest girls for disturbing the peace? No less entertaining were Carmen's boy friends, the pair of smugglers, played by George Cahanovsky and Constantino Sorvino. They used English, though the going was heavy. Elizabeth Kerr, another of the 1924 cast, and Eulalia Corcoran sang charmingly the small parts of the girl friends, Frasquita and Mercedes.

A children's chorus in Act 1, though not always seen in indoor productions of this opera, was no interpolation for the book has a "Chorus des Gamins." The chief dance interlude came in the fourth act, with Lillian Ogden and Rita de LaPorte as premier dancers. Preparations for the last act took a rather weary time, and there was some hand-clapping, after the fashion of small-town o'ry house audiences, to start the show.

With the amplifiers not in service, the theater was thrown back on its natural acoustics, as in its earlier seasons. People in the upper sections said they could hear pretty well. It was announced that the amplifiers will be used tonight and for the rest of the week.

Vittorio Verze presided as conductor. Tonight Riccardo Martin, Metropolitan tenor, will sing Don Jose, and Maria Wittkowska, lately of the Chicago civic opera, will interpret Carmen, with the remainder of the cast unchanged.

New Head of Sacred Heart Order. Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Mother Mary Joseph Butler, president of Marymount College, has been unanimously elected superior general of the Order of the Sacred Heart of Mary. The election was held last Saturday by the general council at the mother house of the order in Beliers, France, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mother St. Constance last Easter. This is the first time any but a French woman has been elected. The new superior general was born in Ireland in 1860. Her headquarters will be in France.

MITES AT CAMBRIDGE, MASS., FOR DR. CHARLES W. ELLIOT

By the Associated Press.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Aug. 25.—Harvard University buildings closed their doors for the day and activities were at a standstill during the hour of the funeral of Dr. Charles W. Elliot, 40 years president of the university, in Appleton Chapel, where in life he had often worshipped.

At services yesterday in North-east Harbor, Me., where the 82-year-old educator died Sunday, and where he had made his summer home for nearly half a century, his island neighbors paid a last affectionate tribute to their friend.

Dr. Francis G. Peabody, his brother-in-law, and the Rev. Henry Wilder Foote of Belmont, Mass., a nephew, conducted the service. Today Dr. Peabody and the Rev. George A. Gordon of Belmont, Mass., conducted the service, after which burial was made in Mount Auburn Cemetery.

The Rev. Samuel A. Elliot, the only surviving son, accompanied the body here from Northeast Harbor. Maj. Winthrop Chandler Dies. CANANDIGUA, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Maj. Winthrop Chandler, 65 years old, of Genesee, N. Y., millionaire sportsman and aid to Gen. Pershing during the World War, is dead here following a second stroke of paralysis within three weeks. His widow, four daughters and three sons survive.

AMBASSADOR THEATER TO BE OPENED TONIGHT

Three Thousand Invited Guests to See New Movie House—Public Tomorrow.

The new Ambassador Theater at Seventh and Locust streets will be opened formally tonight. In addition to the regular program of pictures, stage show and music, there will be talks by Acting Mayor Neun, former Mayor Kell, President Mayor of the Chamber of Commerce, and Robert Lieber, president of First National Pictures, Incorporated.

The audience will consist of 3000 invited guests. The public opening will be tomorrow.

Among the persons connected with motion pictures who will appear at the Ambassador tonight are S. R. Kent, general manager of Famous Players-Lasky Corporation; Robert Kane, independent producer, and Sam Katz, president of Public Theater Corporation, which controls 600 theaters. They and Lieber are at Hotel Chase.

Lieber said today: "The motion picture industry is destined to continue its great strides. It will do so because it is able to attract to the box office the best of the country. The chief function of the motion picture is not to educate, but to entertain under the most comfortable and pleasing environment."

Preceding a downtown parade at noon today, the TC-7 from Batt Field flew low and an airplane dropped bombs from a higher altitude. In the parade were the band and a battalion of the Sixth Infantry, Jefferson Barracks; city firemen, employees of the Ambassador and persons connected with local and national motion picture affairs. The Fire Department exhibited old hook and ladder and hose reel wagons.

JAMES E. DAVENPORT DEAD

City's Progress to Be Depicted at Exposition

A portrayal of St. Louis' remarkable diversity of manufacture and its astonishing industrial growth of the last few years will be presented at the Greater St. Louis Exposition, Sept. 4th to 19th.

A noteworthy Exposition of Furniture Styles is now in progress at the Pruffrock-Litton Furniture Co., Fourth and St. Charles streets. And these new furniture arrivals are now offered at reductions of 10% to 50% during their Annual August Sale.

Visit their store today or tomorrow—just six more days of this sale!

Salesman Wanted

The man required is probably employed and loyal to his present employer, but would take superior opportunity, severing from his existing employment. Such a man is successful in the St. Louis trade area, and he understands such merchandising completely. He will be able to take a new line of food products of an old St. Louis house and introduce them in the majority of stores (including chain stores) in St. Louis and surrounding territories. He will be backed by an extensive advertising campaign.

If this man exists, the possibilities are unlimited, as it is intended to extend this campaign to other cities and eventually nationalize the undertaking.

All replies will be held in strictest confidence. State your age, experience and compensation expected. No telephone or personal interview will be arranged until after receipt of letter.

agine, say: 'Don't buy a Ford; let's have an automobile.'"

Ford's position, as explained by persons who have had his confidence, is that the Ford car is a car of service, that its value has been proved by the sale of 14,000,000 of them, and that in furnishing the car he has rendered a much bigger service than he could have rendered with a car of more attractive appearance.

Nor is he convinced by the changes in the appearance of the car this spring that style is what is wanted. The change consisted in the addition of a nicked hood, a choice of colors and a slight modification of line was followed by an increase in sales which, however, did not hold.

"I gave you colors and a nicked hood, the things you said you wanted, and yet you don't sell cars," he is quoted as having said to one of the many dealers who have been under pressure to buck up. "Why don't you sell them?"

"Mr. Ford," said the dealer, "you can paint up a barn, but it will still be a barn and not a parlor."

Agents Grow Independent.

One effect of the change in the demand for Ford cars has been a growing independence of the agents, who have been finding it a matter of soliciting sales rather than taking orders, and who, with increased difficulty in selling, have shown almost proportional independence in their dealings with the sales organization.

The influence of these men with Edsel Ford is credited with causing the changes in the style of the car last year. Their constant demand has been for better style cars, and they have been solidly in opposition to any further reductions in prices which, in the present state of the market, would not, they say, increase sales.

The trade here does not look for any cut in prices by Ford. On the contrary, it is inclined to the opinion that Ford, instead of devoting his enormous resources to a price war, will bend his energies to making a more stylish car to sell at proportionally the same prices for which the present model sells.

Unlike other manufacturers, the sales department and not the manufacturer fixes the prices of Ford products. Where other manufacturers figure the cost of a car as the basis for the selling price, Ford decides what a car should sell for and then puts it up to the manufacturing department to make a profit at that price.

Color to the report that the new Ford will be geared and may be a six cylinder is given by the presence on the roads about Dearborn of a considerable number of such cars. Just how many of the geared type are in operation is difficult to determine, but some observers say there are not fewer than 200 of them.

POT AND KETTLE POLITICAL FIGHT IN MARYLAND

ing and his private primary campaign."

Hill had an answer for this. He explained that he had paid the publisher $142.50 for printing extracts of his speeches, reported in the Congressional Record, which he sent out to his constituents.

Included in the list of speeches Hill had reprinted from the Record was one which he said dealt with "the failure of Senator Welles to represent the State of Maryland in the Senate."

It was printed under the caption, "The Approaching Primary Election in Maryland," under that boon to members of Congress, the privilege of "leaving to printing."

A Hole in Hill's Armour.

When Hill asked for unanimous consent to print this speech, a Democrat, Representative Eugene Black of Texas, while not objecting, pointed out that Congressional courtesy demands that a member of one house should not attack the work or the record of a member of the other chamber. In his undelivered but printed speech, Hill recorded the number of times Welles had missed roll calls.

In his own defense, Hill merely stated, "I dare the Senator to send any one of the speeches or letters which I have sent out under my official frank to the Postmaster General and ask for a ruling on them. Senator Welles will find that every one of them is legal."

Hill had the better of the argument there for extracts from the Congressional Record can legally be sent under frank. He failed, however, to comment on the ethics on attacking a member of the Senate through the pages of the Record in an undelivered speech and of making the people of the entire country pay for a part of his campaign in Maryland.

$3500 TAKEN IN AUTO HOLDUP AT CEMENT CITY, MO.

Four Armed Men in Touring Car Halt Storekeeper and Companion—Later Hit By Bullets.

By the Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 25.—Four men in a touring car today held up and robbed Morris Rosenberg, proprietor of the Missouri Supply Co., at Cement City, this county, of $3500 he was taking to the store for cashing checks.

Several shots were fired by the men, one or more of which hit a Mexican who was riding with Rosenberg. The Mexican was taken to a sanitarium at Independence.

The hold-up occurred at a sharp turn where the road to Cement City branches off the Independence road. Cement City is in the Northeastern part of Jackson County, near the Missouri River.

MORE THAN AN ACRE of CERTAIN-TEED ROOFING

A CERTAIN-TEED construction roof measuring 51,000 square feet has been chosen to protect the huge quantities of foodstuffs that will be stored in the new Piggly Wiggly warehouse at Spring and Chouteau avenues.

For warehouses, hotels, office buildings—in fact wherever long troubleproof service is desired, Certain-teed construction roofs offer an ideal investment. Tested materials from our own factories plus carefully supervised laying have given Certain-teed roofs (on thousands of St. Louis buildings) an enviable reputation for exceedingly low cost per year of service.

FOR NEW ROOFS---AND FOR REPAIRS

Your repairing or new roof requirements can be effectively provided for with Certain-teed Built-up Asphalt Construction Roofs. They are fire retardant, weatherproof and resist the drying-out action of the sun and other disintegrating forces. Guaranteed for ten or fifteen years for Types B and A, respectively. Old tar and gravel roofs, or wood shingle or metal roofs can be covered with a smooth-surfaced or with red, green or blue-black slate-surfaced Certain-teed roof. Plan your repair work now for completion before Fall rains start. Phone or write us for estimates and suggestions.

$250,000,000 CUT PLANNED FOR NEXT FEDERAL BUDGET

President and Chairman Madden of House Appropriations Committee Discuss Estimates for 1928.

By the Associated Press
PAUL SMITHS, N. Y., Aug. 25.—The aim of the national administration to adhere to its economy program was emphasized by President Coolidge today in discussing budget estimates for the fiscal year 1928 with Representative Madden (Rep.) of Illinois, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee. The proposed expenditures for next year, Madden said afterward, probably would be $250,000,000 less than those for the present fiscal year, due to special increases for postal pay and the soldiers' bonus.

Madden who was a house guest at White Pine Camp over night left this noon for Chicago. Later he will go to Washington to confer with Director Lord of the budget. The House Appropriations Committee will begin its hearings on the supply measures about Nov. 5. Further tax reduction in the United States must await the funding of all the World War debts due this country from other nations, in the belief of Representative Madden.

Madden thinks no tax reduction program should be made for the forthcoming short session of Congress, although it is his opinion that by the time the Congress of December, 1927, comes into session the situation may warrant tax reduction.

Madden is convinced, however, that future attempts at reduction should only follow complete adjustment of the foreign debt situation.

His views were obtained upon his arrival at the camp yesterday. At the same time he issued a statement in which he defended the protective tariff, praised the economy program of the administration, and advocated the development of inland waterways so as to afford agriculture lower transportation rates.

Other callers on the President's engagement list today were Louis K. Liggett of Boston, drug store owner, and Representative Will R. Wood (Rep.) of Indiana. Wood is chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, and was invited to discuss the political situation with Coolidge.

Madden's statement. "The economy program of the administration," Madden said in a statement, "has produced far-reaching results, among which the payment of more than $6,000,000 of the public debt, the one and three-fourths billions annual reductions in taxes, the one-fourth of a billion annual reduction in interest on the public debt, are notable achievements, and it must not be forgotten that while this process of stabilization has been going on more than three billions have been expended on the care of the men who fought in the World War and their families, and that there is still being expended on their account as a part of the annual cost of government one-half million, including $120,000,000 set apart to meet the obligations of the Government under the adjusted compensation act.

"And it must not be forgotten that there is appropriated about one-half a billion annually to the credit of the sinking fund—used to pay of the public debt and counted as part of the current expense. No such achievement has ever before been accomplished. Does anyone doubt that the people approve the policy which has made this possible?

"We hear occasional criticism of our tariff policy. Some think the rates should be revised downward, some upward; some profess to think we are not liberal enough in the admission of foreign-made goods, others that we are too liberal. The best evidence of the wisdom of the existing rates is the amount of revenue produced, $585,000,000 a year, one-fourth of a billion more than under any previous act.

Recall Underwood law. "Let me take the revisionists back to the Underwood act, which opened American ports to the free admission of foreign-made goods, opened European factories, employed European workmen and closed American factories and forced more than 5,000,000 American workmen into idleness. Today, under the beneficent rule of the Republican party, no man who wants work need be idle and wages are higher than ever before in the country's history.

"Why take a chance? Why transfer the economic advantage America now enjoys to Europe? Why destroy the American market? Why give Europe our markets on better terms than we have them? Why not continue the policy of protecting the American market for the American people.

"The time has come to push our river improvements and thus affording agriculture lower rates for the transportation of its products. The Illinois, Ohio, Missouri and Mississippi system of water transportation. "The Government, while protecting every legitimate interest and safeguarding the rights of future generations, should itself not enter upon a policy of large expenditures from the Treasury if private capital can be enlisted under proper safeguards."

The BILLIONAREA

the GREATER ST. LOUIS MARKET

Newspaper Coverage Makes Your Market

Your P+D+C selection of a Newspaper will reveal this vital Sales Fact

IN reckoning sales volume for your product in any market, there is an important difference between the population size of a market and its sales size. The first is determined primarily by numbers of people; the second by numbers of people reached.

When you realize that coverage makes your market, your newspaper selection becomes a controlling factor in your analysis of market possibilities.

There are two important facts to consider: [1] The extent of thorough newspaper coverage, for that determines the physical size of your market; and [2], the proportion of newspaper coverage to total families in that area, because that determines the effectiveness of your influence in the market.

Consider those facts in connection with The Billionarea—the Greater St. Louis Market.

P+D+C—The Micrometer of a Newspaper

The P+D+C rating is the advertiser's micrometer for measuring both market and medium. "P" is population—people, families, the number of purchasing units. "D" is dollars, wealth production or per capita buying power. "C" is coverage or concentrated circulation, the ability of a medium to saturate its market with circulation sufficient to assure effectiveness in moving goods in volume.

To definitely determine where newspaper coverage is sufficient to be effective and where it is not, use the target method of analysis. An analysis of any newspaper circulation by areas, first for the metropolitan area (as the bull's-eye) and then separately for each succeeding "ring" of surrounding counties, will tell you exactly where circulation is effective and where it ceases to be of any sales value. All statistics on population and purchasing power are compiled by metropolitan districts and by counties—and metropolitan newspaper circulations are available on the same basis.

The Truth Will Out When P+D+C is Applied

Each newspaper in turn claims to cover a market worthy of your attention as a volume consumer of your goods. The truth is that many of these newspapers scatter their circulation so thinly over so wide an area that their influence in moving merchandise dwindles to near nothing outside of the metropolitan district. And by their lack of concentrated circulation, such newspapers reduce their power to sway the metropolitan market where the concentration of population and purchasing power makes volume-selling possible. Any sales manager who will use the P+D+C method of weighing the value of markets and media can dig out the true facts for himself.

The P+D+C Manual and The Book of Information About The Billionarea—The Greater St. Louis Market, will be mailed free to anyone interested in the advertising and sales opportunity of this market. Address St. Louis Post-Dispatch, St. Louis.

DEMOCRATS OF ILLINOIS MEET AT STATE FAIR TODAY

Senatorial Nominee Hopes to Secure Union Between Cook County and Downstate.

TOMORROW IS REPUBLICAN DAY
Frank L. Smith to Attend—Small and Allen, Gubernatorial Aspirants May Start Campaign.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 25.—Plans for the reception and entertainment of both Democratic and Republican party leaders who will be at the State fair here are complete, party lieutenants announced today, and the stirring of the political pots will start today.

The Democrats will hold forth at the fair tomorrow, their gathering to be featured by the assembly of a large number of the supporters of George E. Brennan, candidate for United States Senator. Brennan will take advantage of the fair to make hay in the rural political fields, and to join the downstate Democrats, with Cook County members of the party in a love feast that is expected to result in much good to Democratic candidates in the November elections.

First Shot for Democrats.
The Democrats will have first shot at the fair crowds in making a plea for support in the fall campaign. Brennan, with a large delegation from Chicago, plans to spend a great deal of time at the fair grounds. He will speak in favor of modification of the Volstead Act, and of legislation aiding the farmers.

Brennan supporters from Southern Illinois have been invited to attend the party round-up, and it is expected that petitions to place a plea for beer and light wine on the November ballot will be circulated. J. H. Kirby, Petersburg, independent Democratic candidate for United States Senator, also will maintain headquarters in the city throughout fair week. Kirby's candidacy is largely a personal protest against his party's advocacy of the wet cause, and local regulars do not consider him as a formidable candidate.

Republicans to Be Active.
Meanwhile, Republicans of the State will be active. The Republican State Central Committee has established headquarters in the city, and issued invitations to party leaders in all sections of the State to be present at the fair.

Frank L. Smith, the party's candidate for the United States senatorial post, will meet his supporters at headquarters and discuss plans for the November elections. It is not expected that much will be done concerning the party plans for activity after the State election, since that is a period with which the future will have to deal.

Small Expected to Run Again.
Gov. Len Small will attend the fair Thursday, the Republicans' big day, with other State officials. Supporters of the Governor are sure that he will be a candidate for a third term, although he has not yet indicated his attitude toward running again. It is understood that he wishes to see the present campaign out of the way before taking any steps toward the inauguration of another.

Secretary of State Louis L. Emerson, counted on definitely as a starter in the gubernatorial race of 1928, will be at the Republican round-up, as will Attorney-General Oscar E. Carlstrom, State Auditor Oscar Nelson, and Lieutenant-Governor Fred E. Sterling, all of whom have been mentioned frequently as possible contenders for the governorship in 1928.

$25,000 PRIZE FOR SWIMMERS
Wrigley Increases Amount for Crossing Santa Catalina Channel.
By the Associated Press.

SAN PEDRO, Cal., Aug. 25.—An advance of $25,000 awaits the first swimmer who successfully braves the demons of the deep and swims the San Pedro channel between Santa Catalina Island and the mainland, it was announced today by William Wrigley Jr., who offers that sum in competition open to all comers. The feat is rated as exceptionally difficult by experts, who point out that at no time of the day will the prevailing tides assist progress and a troublesome chop skipped up by breezes sweeping down the channel.

An adverse pull of about one mile an hour would impede the progress of the swimmers trying to negotiate the channel from the mainland and this handicap makes the crossing from this side almost impossible in the opinion of authorities.

Win Her Over

It IS difficult at first to start a new daily custom no matter how simple. But here is a practice that means so much in health protection.

It has been proven many times that when we perform the new duties that modern medicine advises, we are also promoting our individual culture and refinement.

This is especially true in the new daily custom that is being urged upon us. Most infectious diseases, as we all know, find the nose an open gateway. Further we recognize the importance of disease prevention.

Since the nose is the open gateway to disease, the nose must be kept clean. It must be kept healthful—free from germs.

Daily nasal cleanliness is so easy to attain. A simple little practice, night and morning, more quickly performed than cleaning the teeth—and yet even more essential for personal hygiene.

Apply ARZEN in the nostrils, with the provided medicine dropper. Notice how the nasal passages are cleared at once. Discharge germs have been routed. With full freedom in breathing, you breathe deeper and better. The whole body benefits. But best of all, because of nasal cleanliness there is the effect of fastidious freshness.

SPECIFIC USES
Arzen used daily prevents colds. Stops them if started. Excellent for Hay Fever Relief. An aid in sinus trouble. Daily nasal cleanliness prevents infectious disease. Keeps the nose as clean as the face.

article produced upon the farm has been adequately protected by this law," Fordney said.

Fordney, who was chairman of the committees on Ways and Means when the law was framed, said most farm necessities were on the free list.

"Leather goods of all kinds—excepting fancy articles—such as boots, shoes and harnesses are on the free list. All kinds of farm machinery and vehicles used on the farm are on the free list and nearly all kinds of building materials are on the free list," he said. "There is a small duty on lime and cement but none on brick or lumber. Barbed wire also is on the free list. These are among the chief articles purchased by farmers."

Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

Better Than Soda
For fifty years genuine "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Because it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

"Me and the boy friend"

YOU know them, bless their hearts. A pair of youngsters, really, in spite of their self-reliant air and their fast-vanishing teens. The girl—slim, clear-eyed, merry; the boy—flippant, a bit arrogant, full of secret, earnest plans for success.

They like each other. They go to the movies together, dance, quarrel a bit. They don't believe in early marriages. But her eyes shine when she speaks of him. "Me and the boy friend."

One of these days, suddenly, they'll be grown up. Man and wife, those fearless youngsters. A home to plan, life to face. A budget, a savings account, economies.

They'll make mistakes, but they'll learn quickly. She'll begin to be canny in the spending of money—to question prices and values. She'll begin to read about the things she plans to buy, to find out all she can about them. She'll become a regular reader of advertisements.

They'll help her to become the capable, wise housewife she wants so much to be. They'll tell her what clothes are best and what prices to pay for them. They'll tell her about the foods to buy, the electric appliances, the linoleums and draperies. They'll help her, as the advertisements in this newspaper can help you.

And she'll meet her responsibilities and fulfill her duties easily and well. She won't become a tired, flustered, inefficient drudge. Because her home will be modern, attractive, well-run, she'll keep young—through the speedy years she'll retain much of that shining-eyed merry freshness. She and the "boy friend."

After two well-dressed young men had partaken of ice cream sodas in the confectionery of Randolph Kirkpatrick, 4284 Arsenal street, at 9:30 o'clock last night, one, wearing tortoise shell glasses, drew a revolver and marched into a rear room where Mrs. Kirkpatrick was nursing a child. At her request he promised not to shoot and contented himself with searching dresser drawers, finding nothing. Meanwhile his companion had taken $50 from the cash register. They escaped in an automobile.

Twenty minutes later, they entered a drug store at 6126 South west avenue and held up Clifford A. Shield, a clerk, and Elmer E. Mann, a soda dispenser. The man, a soda dispenser, 2848 Cliff street, came in, and the tortoise-shelled robber ascertained that he wanted a brick of ice cream. He served her, pocketed the 65 cents she offered in payment, and smiled at his appreciation. He then took $70 from the register and $7 from Shield.

Erdmann ventured to exchange reports with the robbers, a was struck on the head with a volter. Then the robbers drove away.

Harry L. Precht, 3109 South Broadway, was putting his automobile in a garage near his home at 1:10 a. m. today when a man held him up and obtained $34.

Joseph Desmuke, manager of oil station at 119 North Twelfth boulevard, reported a man held him up there at 8:30 o'clock last night and took $45.

PORCELAIN PRODUCTION CHEAP

New Methods Used in Germany Increase Trade With U. S.
Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
BERLIN, Aug. 10.—By the introduction of new processes Germans are preparing their industry for competition in the world market. This is illustrated in the porcelain industry. The first German porcelain exhibition has been opened in Selb, north Bavaria, in the Czech frontier. It shows the general development of European china industry and its modern state.

Much fancy porcelain is manufactured in styles to suit American taste. The reason for this is the hope of increasing the export of German china to the States. Already the United States has the list of foreign buyers of German china, purchasing 10,000 of household and 100,000 tons of orative porcelain a year. A process of manufacture is now being used. Formerly the china baked only with hard coal. lately there has been found a method which permits the use of brick coal even for this delicate product. This makes production cheaper. In Germany the industry is becoming independent of Bohemian china.

HUNTER SUED FOR DIVORCE

Wife of Contractor Says He Went to Arizona and Did not Return.

Asserting that on Aug. 5 her husband took his gun and dog and automobile and departed for Arizona to lead a nomadic life, Mrs. Frances Grote of Creve Coeur, St. Louis County, today filed suit for divorce at Clayton. She charges desertion.

The husband, Henry C. Grote, a contractor, wrote her recently, she set forth, that he was in good health and enjoying himself, but said nothing about coming home. Therefore she asks for divorce and allowances for the support of their four children. They were married April 5, 1910. Mrs. Grote also charges that her husband treated her cruelly and failed properly to provide for her and the children.

Feast of St. Louis Sunday

The one hundred and sixty-third annual celebration of the Feast of St. Louis will be held at the Old Cathedral, Third and Walnut streets, Sunday. The Daughters of St. Louis will receive holy communion at 8 a. m. and solemn high mass will be sung at 10 a. m. The Rev. Theodore Schulte, S. J., will preach.

Jumps Into Well, Saves Sister.

KAUFMAN, Tex.—The bravery and presence of mind of the 7-year-old daughter of L. D. Locklin, a farmer living near here, saved her 2-year-old sister from drowning in a shallow cistern. The baby fell into the 18-foot well in which there was four feet of water. The older sister saw her, called her father and then jumped into the water, holding the baby's head above the water level until Locklin could bring a rope, with which he pulled them both out.

Sweden to Turn Out New Auto.

By Radio to the Post-Dispatch and the Chicago Daily News. Copyright, 1925. STOCKHOLM, Aug. 25.—A new Swedish automobile will be introduced next year, manufactured in Swedish factories, and designed by Swedish engineers. Members of the Cabinet have tried out the new car. The Secretary of Commerce, who is an old driver, expressed his satisfaction at the performance of the vehicle. Manufacture will be started on a small scale shortly and thousands of the cars are expected to be in use next spring.

UNABLE TO IDENTIFY SAFE ROBBERS WHO BLEW LEG OFF

Sedalia Officers Who Went to Boonville Hospital Decide
They Do Not Know Him.

Sedalia to the Post-Dispatch.
BOONVILLE, Mo., Aug. 25.—No further identification in connection with other robberies has been made of Manuel Mendezbol, who blew off his leg in an attempt to rob the safe at the Standard Oil filling station here early Tuesday morning.

Mendezbol, who is in a critical condition, continues to grow weaker and little hope is held for his recovery. He is still reluctant to talk and authorities here have been unable to obtain any information as to the whereabouts of his companions.

It is thought that Mendezbol is the man who was arrested and held for investigation in Sedalia during Fair week. He was employed in a restaurant there at that time and was released after a short time.

F. C. Lenz Charges August Ehr-licher With Shooting Him—Grand Jury to Investigate.

August Ehrlicher, 41 years old, of 4359A Lee avenue, was held for the grand jury at a preliminary hearing at Clayton yesterday for shooting Frederick C. Lenz, 32 years old, president of the St. Louis Business Exchange, July 28. Lenz testified he tried to borrow money from Ehrlicher and that they drove to a point on Natural Bridge road, where, he declared, Ehrlicher drew a revolver and fired five or six shots at him without warning or provocation, wounding him. Ehrlicher made no statement and was released on $3500 bond.

OPPORTUNITY in the "Wants"

What Are Some of the HUNDREDS of CLASSIFIED Offers Appearing DAILY in the POST-DISPATCH?

Homes and Homesites

Upon the foundation of home ownership many successes have been started. The Post-Dispatch classified lists of homes for sale give information as to price, location and the terms on which homes in the city or suburbs can be purchased, and where choice homesites may be found.

Real Estate Investments

Growing values in income real estate wisely selected practically assures independence. Men with judgment, who in the past, watched for and promoted real estate turnovers are wealthy. Real estate advertisements in the Post-Dispatch include the best present day investment offers.

Business Openings

The story of the man starting with a small-hole-in-the-wall candy shop, now a large real estate holder, is not an isolated case. Similar opportunities are appearing from day to day in the Post-Dispatch Business for Sale Columns for the man or woman who can make good.

Partners and Employment

CARDINALS HAVE CHANCE TODAY TO REGAIN LEAD THEY LOST YESTERDAY

Flint Rhem Will Pitch Series Final Against Troublesome Braves

Victory This Afternoon, With Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Losing, Would Put Hornsby's Men Back in First Place.
—Team Now Tied With Reds in Second Place.

By J. Roy Stockton.

Pittsburgh's world champion Pirates regained the lead by trouncing the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday afternoon while the Cardinals were breaking even with the Boston Braves in a double-header, but the champions' first-place margin is only four points and a defeat for the Pirates and Reds this afternoon and a victory for the Cardinals would put the men of Hornsby back in first place.

Charles Flint Rhem, the strong-armed right-hander from Carolina, will pitch for the Hornsbymen in the final game of the series with the Braves. He will have to pitch only five and will be a top-heavy favorite this afternoon, no matter who pitches for the Boston upstarts.

Cincinnati continued its winning streak, scoring its tenth consecutive victory, and the half game they gained on the Cardinals enabled the Reds to climb to a tie with St. Louis for second place.

The standing of the three contenders follows:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	47	38	.553
Cardinals	40	51	.439
Cincinnati	40	51	.439

Yesterday's defeat, coming in the first game of the double-header, and misfortune early in the second game, gave the Cardinals a chance to show their ability to pitch and come back and win.

In winning 16 out of 18 games they had shown great skill as a team, and a second place tie with the Reds would have been a great achievement.

The score showed that the Pirates were mauling the Brooklyn Dodgers. First place was gone. The Cincinnati Reds, moreover, were handing the Giants another victory. It was the ninth straight victory for the Reds and Cincinnati.

Four-Run Rally in the Third Inning Puts the Cardinals Back in Ball Game

With one out in the third inning the Cardinals began their comeback. They scored four runs and tied the game.

Southworth sent a sacrifice fly to Brown. Thevenow raced over fourth plate and the Braves were up there ahead and Hornsby was quick to smother a double down the right field line and Reinhardt and Holm scored and Boston's margin was cut to two runs. Jim Bottomley also doubled, a long smash to right-center, and Hornsby carried a hit away to center. The Braves were only one run ahead, and it was once more a ball game.

Lester Bell almost won the game right there with another extra base hit, but Ed Brown galloped toward center and hauled down the drive.

The game was won in the eighth. Hornsby walked and Bottomley sacrificed and Bell singled to center. Rogers Rogers with the tying run. Douthett hit out a bunt and O'Farrell singled to left, scoring Bell with the run that put the Cards ahead.

Alexander went to Reinhardt's rescue to check a Boston rally in the ninth. With one out Bancroft batted for Jack Smith and walked and went to third on Gautreaux's single to center. Alexander relieved Reinhardt and on Welsh's grounder to Hornsby, Bancroft was out at the plate. Hornsby hesitated momentarily before throwing the ball to O'Farrell and the play at the plate was extremely close. It is a good thing to serve solo in paper cups when decisions mean as much as this one means.

Smith's Fumble Beats Cards. Jack Smith fumbled the Cardinals out of the first game. Larry Benton held the Cardinals to one hit and pitched hitless, runless ball in eight out of nine innings, and yet if it had not been for a fumble by Jack Smith the Cardinals would have won the first game, 3 to 2.

It all happened in the third inning. O'Farrell struck out and Thevenow singled to center for the first hit off Benton. Sherdel followed suit. Thevenow stopping at second, Wattle Holm contributed the third straight blow, also a single to the middle field and Thevenow raced home. Sherdel, running as pitchers usually run, slowly but carefully, stopped at second when he saw the single bounding toward Jack Smith. But Smith fumbled the ball and it bounced a few feet away from him. Sherdel then changed his plans and broke for Benton a Great Pitcher.

That was the only inning in which the Cards could do anything with Benton. In the fifth he walked O'Farrell, the next batter, but struck out Thevenow and Sherdel hit into a double play. In the seventh he walked Bell, leading off. Douthett sacrificed, but after Bell went to third on O'Farrell's sacrifice fly to Brown, Benton struck out Thevenow.

Sherdel also pitched a good game, but the Braves nicked him for eight hits, twice as many as the Cards made. Off Benton, Brown doubled in the seventh inning, took third on High's single to left and scored on Conner's squeeze bunt. In the eighth after two were out, Mann singled to center and Moore beat out a hit in front of the plate, a high bouncer which Sherdel apparently lost in the sun. Brown took advantage of this break by poling a line single to center, scoring Mann.

Benton performed brilliantly in the field, playing two errorless games and fighting hard all the way.

Billy Southworth Was So Polite McGraw Just Couldn't 'Bawl' Him Out

And That's One Reason the Cardinals Are Now Fighting for the Pennant.

THIS is the first of a series of intimate character sketches of the men in Cardinal uniform who are trying to give St. Louis its first pennant since 1888. Others will appear from time to time.

WILLIAM H. "BILLY" SOUTHWORTH is 32 years old, throws right-handed, is a quiet and polite, so well-mannered and polished, that John McGraw could not stand him.

When one of McGraw's players makes a mistake, McGraw throws some plain and fancy words at him. But he never had the heart to "bawl out" or "bawl out" the quiet Billy Southworth.

Finally it got on McGraw's nerves, and that's one of the reasons the Cardinals are fighting for a pennant. McGraw and Southworth to the Cardinals for Home Mueller, who will not cause McGraw any embarrassment.

Southworth was born in Harvard, Neb., March 9, 1894. He is 5 feet 8 1/2 inches tall and weighs 170 pounds. He broke into organized baseball in 1912 with Portsmouth of the Ohio State League and his first major league trial was with Cleveland, playing part of 1914 and 1915.

He was traded to Boston in 1921, to New York in 1924, remaining with the Giants until he got on McGraw's nerves this summer. Southworth can't play any field except right. If he shifts to center or left his hitting falls off immediately. As soon as he became a right-field fixture with the Cardinals his hitting picked up and he began to hit home runs.

He has a short rhythmic swing at the plate and his timing enables him to hit the ball over the pavilion with a short, unimpressive swing.

(Tomorrow, Jim Bottomley.)

GOV. PINCHOT DISMISSES NEGRO MEMBER FROM BOXING COMMISSION

TEX RICKARD GETS LICENSE TO HOLD BOUT

Several Promoters Step Out and Will Help New Yorker Make Coming Dempsey-Tunney Fight a Success.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 25.—The most interesting development yesterday in the Dempsey-Tunney fight calendar was the dismissal of Fred White, negro boxing commissioner, from his post, $10,000 a year, by a personally signed order from Gov. Pinchot of Pennsylvania. In his letter to White, Gov.
Pinchot made it clear that he considered the former boxing official's habit of writing open letters in which he aired his views on the pending championship battle as a direct violation of a promise he had made to the Governor.

"You broke your word," wrote Gov. Pinchot to White, "but I am dealing mine" (referring to his word that he would dismiss any commissioner giving public vent to his feelings).

Ever since it was announced that Dempsey would defend his crown against Tunney in the Sesqui standard here on Sept. 23, White has been outspoken in his criticism of Pennsylvania officials in their effort to make the fight a success.

Corbett Wants Redress.
James J. Corbett, former heavyweight champion of the world, took issue with White in his plans to gain redress for what he says is breach of contract by someone—himself.

Tex Rickard was as busy as a batter. First he conferred with Francis Brown and the latter's clients, Taylor and Gunnis.
Mayor Kendrick was also in conference and they threshed out the matter of any possible claim these promoters might have on the city.

Thresh Out Differences.
"The Mayor said," Rickard announced later, "that the firm held no claim of any real basis against the city and that nobody was going to be allowed to stop the fight. He said he wanted harmony and asked me to meet Taylor and Gun-nis and talk matters over." Later he announced they had reached a satisfactory agreement and Rickard and will do all they can to assist him in making the a success.

Rickard obtained his Pennsylva-

Taylor Douthitt laying down a perfect bunt in the eighth inning, on which Lester Bell advanced to second base. He scored on O'Farrell's single.

Gov. Pinchot Puts
In Order for 200
Tickets for Fight

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Gov.
Pinchot of Pennsylvania evidently intends to do more than lend moral support to the Dempsey-Tunney bout, which is to be held at the Sesquicentennial stadium in Philadelphia on Sept. 23. Yesterday, according to Tex Rickard, Gov. Pinchot put in his order for 200 ringside seats.

"And the order was accompanied by his check," added Tex.

Headquarters for Rickard's staff were selected. As soon as necessary changes are made, tickets for the fight will be shipped here and put on sale. Prices will be $3.30, $5.50, $7.70, $16.50, $22.00 and $27.50.

Appoints New Commissioner.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 25.— Harry T. Farrell, Nanticoke, was named by Governor Pinchot today to the vacancy on the State Athletic Commission caused by the removal last night of Charles Fred White, of Philadelphia.

Martin to Meet
Jack McCarthy
In Feature Bout

Five Other Six-Round Contests on Program at Battery A Tonight.

Lester Martin, the St. Louis welterweight battler, who recently attained considerable prominence in Illinois and Indiana boxing circles by hanging up four successive knockout victories, will tackle Jack McCarthy in the main event of six bouts to be held under the auspices of the Business Men's A. C. at the Battery arena tonight.

The engagement will bring Martin into action with a fighter who has been a consistent winner in local competition during the past five years. Two victories over the ponderous Mann Dugan and other victories over Grub Whalen, Tiger Cline and the late Bud McHale armong McCarthy's best achievements.

Paul Lang and Ray Palmer, local bantams, who have been bitter rivals since their amateur days, will meet for the fifth time within 15 months, when they swing into action in the semi-final bout. Lang won the decision in two of their three amateur fights, while Palmer captured the third set-to and also earned a popular verdict in their first professional contest.

Terry Meets Schlereth.

Another return engagement will afford Lou Terry, South Side kayo artist, an opportunity to square accounts with Buddy Schlereth. It is featherweight rival, who scored a point victory over him on the last Battery program.

Jimmy McCarthy and Al McCoy, lightweights, who graduated from the amateur ranks during the past season, are booked to clash in the curtain-raiser, starting at 8:15 p. m.
The second prize will bring together Victor Windle, a Junior welter eight, and "Young Pirlo" of Milwaukee, Wis. Windle has knocked out five opponents in a total of 13 amateur and professional contests.

Heavyweight sluggers are billed in the third preliminary, which brings Rocky Adams of Iowa against Harry Ethington of Mattoon, Ill.

All six bouts are to be contested over the six-round route.
Harry S. Sharpe will referee.

Offensive and Defensive Strength Are Necessary for All-Star Contest Teams

Players Must Not Be Selected for Hitting Alone; Proper Balance Between Two Qualities Will Be Best Selection.

Any reader who mails to the Post-Dispatch between Aug. 1 and Aug. 31 a team of 10 players (except Ruth himself) in the National and American Leagues for the season of 1926, with a letter of not more than 200 words, explaining the selection of the team, is eligible to compete.

The reader whose team—two pitchers and eight men in the other positions—is the same or nearest Ruth's selection and is accompanied by the best letter giving reasons for the choice, will be declared the winner.

The contest winner must not only select the same 10 players as Ruth, but must assign them to the same 10 positions on the team.

Players may be placed in positions other than their regular places provided they have played in those places in at least one regular league game in 1926.

Players must be selected on the basis of their playing in 1926; NOT on records made in previous seasons.

In case no team is exactly the same as that selected by Babe Ruth, the one nearest will be named on the merit of its accompanying explanation.

Violation of any rule set forth here will render selections unavailable.

The winning contestant will receive $100 in cash and the runner-up and third best selections and letters $50 apiece.

In addition, Babe Ruth himself offers an autographed bat to the winner of the first prize.
The bat will also be inscribed with the winner's name.

Several readers have written in asking which quality is more necessary to qualify a player for Babe Ruth's All-America major league team, offensive strength or defensive, hitting or fielding.
Many others have indicated by their selections that they place their reliance in hitting alone.

This idea is, of course, erroneous. Babe Ruth will choose his team on both their offensive and defensive merits and the reader who hopes to have his team colcide with Ruth's will have to follow the same plan.

Test of Skill.
Choosing between the bat and the glove is a hard problem and that is what makes the contest a real test of skill. The winner will have to have a real sense of baseball proportion.

Contestants are warned not to neglect the explanatory letter which must accompany each selection. In case of ties the merits of the letters will decide the winners. As announced yesterday, the first trophy is $100 and second and third $50 each. The winner, in addition, will get a bat autographed by Babe Ruth and inscribed with the winner's name.

DOG RACES WITHOUT BETTING IN KENTUCKY

By the Associated Press.
COVINGTON, Ky., Aug. 25.—Dog races without betting were announced, following the issuance of an order of abatement by Judge Leslie T. Applegate, directing Sheriff Harry Klotz to stop all gambling at the track.

A report that the track would be closed was denied by J. Howard Quinn, manager. The certificate of form of wagering was in operation last night and the Sheriff cited three ticket sellers, three cashiers, the manager and two men said to be part owners of the track. Last year the dog races were conducted and wagers accepted under the

Three Things

In LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes you get all that can be in any very fine cigarette—also the added pleasure produced by the extra process of toasting.

You get the choicest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and perfectly blended.

But here are three additional things:
LUCKY STRIKE tobaccos are toasted for 45 minutes in super heat. This (1) removes all "bite" and harshness. It (2) develops the hidden flavors of the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos. Then (3) sudden chilling seals the moist fragrance in, insuring freshness.

"IT'S TOASTED" represents a costly extra process that adds the finishing touch to a wonderfully fine cigarette.

BECAUSE IT'S TOASTED

That's Why Luckies Taste So Good

LORENZ DEFEATS GARVIN, 5-4, IN FIRST ROUND OF JUNIOR GOLF

MRS. WRIGHT WITH 190 SCORE CAPTURES TRAPSHOOTING TITLE

By the Associated Press.

VANDALIA, O., Aug. 25.—The peers of the trapshooters of approximately 20 States began shooting today in the State team championship event in the Grand American Handicap tournament here.

S. L. Jenney of Highland, Ill., was crowned amateur clay target champion of North America yesterday after a shoot-off and toss-up in which E. F. Woodward, Houston, Tex., took second and W. G. Warren, Chicago, third. All three broke 190 at the start.

The women's championship was won by Mrs. J. C. Wright, Atlanta, Ga., with 190. Miss Bessie Gleaves, Wytheville, Va., was second and Mrs. Harry Harrison, Rochester, N. Y., third.

Jimmy Bonner, 17, of New York retained the junior championship title by tying with Adolph Weerze Jr. with 97, and winning in the shoot-off. Jack Welton, Shreveport, La., was third with 96.

The sub-junior championship was won by Howard Kiefer, 14, Orville, O., breaking 86. John Schinke, Dayton, was second with 85.

Tunney's Only Chance Lies In a Crushing Right-Hand Wallop, Declares Dempsey

If Gene Tunney thinks he'll whip me by use of a left jab, Gene will find himself the most mistaken young man in these United States. No man ever used a left jab on me with any success and Tunney will not be the exception.

Tunney's chance to beat me is to shoot over right crosses and slap me on the chin—if he can. Others have done it. They've all nailed me with rights. Some of them shook me up and made the going rough for me. But none of them could put me down and out.

Yes, a right hand may knock me off the top of the fist heap—but this left jab stuff never is going to get Tunney or anyone else anywhere. No man ever effectively held me off with any of this left-hand jabbing and taking a line on the past as a guide for the future, I'll say nobody will.

Willard Never Did Land the Left

JESS WILLARD had a left jab that everybody figured would jar me dizzy. Jess used that jab of his to poke his opponents out of the way and sometimes it was powerful enough to knock them overboard. He figured all he needed to do when he met me was just push out his left, keep me out of range and in due course of time annihilate me with his right.

Willard hasn't jabbed me yet. Georges Carpentier was labeled that he has always fought his best after being hurt.

American Golfer In Fifth Round

Sweeney Defeats Walkdon in British Boys' Championship Tourney.

By the Associated Press.

BOOMBIE HILL, Surrey, England, Aug. 25.—Charles Sweeney, of the Canterbury School, New Milford, Conn., today entered the fifth round of the boys' amateur golf championship by defeating J. K. Walkdon of Uppingham School, 6 and 5, and I. R. Patey of Marlborough, 2 up.

Young Sweeney has made a good impression among critics here who say he has a very good chance to win the trophy. He and his young brother, Robert, were the only Americans entered in the championship. Robert was eliminated yesterday.

Hunter Defeated By Californian in Newport Singles

Davies Wins 2-Hour Struggle, 4-6, 7-5, 8-6—Seligson Is Eliminated.

By the Associated Press.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 25.—James Davies of California, former intercollegiate doubles champion, with Phil Neer, brought off a sensational upset in the fourth round of the Newport invitation tennis tournament today, by eliminating Francis T. Hunter, seeded New York player, in a spectacular two-hour struggle, 4-6, 7-5, 8-6.

William T. Tilden easily defeated his Lehigh University protegee, Neil Sullivan, 6-2, 6-2. The victorious Tilden advanced the title holder to the quarter-finals.

William M. Johnston and Cranston Holman, outstanding Pacific Coast players in the tournament, joined Tilden in the quarter-finals, after brief and decisive matches, the former eliminating Dr. Carl Fischer of Philadelphia, 6-0, 6-3.

Arnold Jones, erstwhile Yale star, fell before the hard-driving Holman, 6-0, 6-4, the victory of the Leland Stanford player placing him in line for a battle tomorrow with Tilden.

Alfred H. Chapin Jr. of Springfield, Mass., earned the right to oppose Johnston in the quarter-finals by blushing through the defense of Louis Thalheimer, flame-haired Texan, 6-4, 6-0. After an uncertain start in the first set, the New England player settled down to crush his foe with powerful drives to deep court, which enabled him to take the set for a dazzling fore-court attack.

Julius Seligson, 16-year-old sensation from New York, who yesterday conquered the veteran internationalist, Watson M. Washburn, today fell before a whirlwind attack by Dr. George King, 6-4, 6-4. He made a courageous uphill fight against his more experienced opponent in both sets.

Fourth Round Singles.

William Tilden, Philadelphia, defeated Neil Sullivan, Lehigh, 6-2, 6-2.

William M. Johnston, San Francisco, defeated Dr. Carl Fischer, Philadelphia, 6-0, 6-3.

Cranston Holman, Leland Stanford, eliminated Arnold Jones, Boston, 6-0, 6-4.

Alfred H. Chapin Jr., Springfield, Mass., won over Louis Thalheimer, Texas, 6-4, 6-0.

Dr. George King, New York, defeated Julius Seligson, New York, 6-4, 6-4.

First Round Doubles.

Phil Neer and James Davies eliminated Sydney Smith Jr. and C. McR. Wilson, 6-2, 6-2.

S. Howard Voshell and B. I. C. Norton, put out A. Heartland and L. G. Norris, 6-0, 6-0.

Howard Langley and Frank Shields defeated Arthur Hays and Brian Doherty, 6-4, 6-3.

Rain Prevents Browns' Final In Washington

Sisler's Men Move to Philadelphia — Never Pounded in 9-6 Defeat.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Rain today prevented the Browns' final 1926 engagement here with the Senators and so Sisler's men got away with an even break in a series, the best they have done in the East on their present trip. Each team won one contest.

The Browns are scheduled to play in Philadelphia tomorrow, so it is likely that today's game will go unplayed unless a doubleheader is offered the fans when Washington makes its visit to St. Louis next month. But as neither team is in the pennant hunt it is not likely that the game will be played.

Never Never So Bad.

Having been virtually handed a win in the opener Monday, the Browns yesterday returned the compliment and made it easy for the Griffins to achieve a 4-to-6 decision. Ernie Nevers was the chief culprit. The Coast collegian's half-underhand delivery wasn't functioning well and during his six sessions of toil he was found for nine bingles, issued five passes, was charged with a balk and committed a wild pitch.

Win Ballou proved a huge improvement and held the Griffins at bay during their last two rounds, but the damage had been done when the visitors couldn't make their belated attack against Alvin Crowder go far enough. The general displayed rare form for more than half the route, hurling shut-out ball for six innings, during which he granted but three scuffs.

He weakened a bit from that point on, but never appeared in real danger despite the spanking he absorbed in the last three stanzas.

(Dempsey, in his next article to be published Sunday, points out that he has always fought his best after being hurt.)

St. Louis Typos Beat St. Paul, Reach Semifinal

Base Hits, Errors and Wild Pitching in 14-5 Game — Homer for G. Roberts.

ST. LOUIS U. FIELD, Aug. 25.—The St. Louis Typos entered the semi-final round of the sixteenth annual international Union Printers' Baseball tournament here this morning, defeating St. Paul, 14 to 5, in a seven-inning game.

Neither starting pitcher survived. Ewald, a southpaw, started for the Saints, but was knocked out of the box in the sixth. Jim Bennett, another southpaw, was St. Louis' first twirler. He was batted out in the third.

Both teams failed to score in the first, but starting the second the locals pounded Ewald. With one out, Kiling singled and scored on Larry Roberts' double. Larry counted on Keeney's single. Thomas walked, but Stockman fanned. Reis came through with a hit, and Keeney tallied. Walden drew a pass. The runners moved up on a passed ball and scored on Bennett's single.

Bennett Is Batted Out.

The Saints came back with four runs in their half when the St. Louis defense went to pieces. Three local errors coupled with two doubles, single and a base on balls gave the runs.

Jandil tripled to open the third. "Lefty" Hines then went to the box and held the Saints scoreless until Mertens took up the burden in the sixth.

St. Louis scored two runs in the fifth when Gene Roberts was hit by a pitched ball and Thomas, Stockman and Walden singled.

The locals had another big inning in the sixth when they scored six times. Larry Roberts opened the inning with a line drive over the right field fence for the first homer of the tournament. Keeney singled and Thomas tripled. Stockman grounded out but Reis and Hines singled. Kiling doubled, scoring Reis and Hines.

Crusader Easily Wins at Saratoga

Dr. Washington and Alard Set New Track Marks at Lincoln Fields.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Crusader, crack colt of the Glen Riddle Farms and recognized king of the season's 3-year-olds, took the Huron Handicap feature at Saratoga yesterday, in a breezing gallop. The big colt carried his 126-pound impost lightly and raced the mile and three-sixteenths under Earl Sande in 1:59 2-5. Espino was second and Black Maria third.

The race was worth $4050 to the winner. Pompey, Display and Dress Parade were among the scratchers.

The five furlong sprint for 2-year-old maiden fillies, third race at the same track, fell to a long shot, Bag Stock Joe, that repaid its backers 12 to 1. Selene was second and Spanish Aster third. The time was 1:05 2-5.

By Leased Wire from the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The Evening Post in its copyrighted financial review today says:

"In spite of surprisingly good support at times, the stock market continued to decline in fairly active trading today. Pressure was greatest against high-priced industrials. Rails were in good demand. Calling of loans by banks to the extent of $20,000,000 was one of the unfavorable market factors, resulting in an advance in the call loan rate to 5 per cent and resulting selling pressure. Subsequent resistance to the reaction developed at slightly lower levels. Foreign bonds featured the investment list, buying in Italian, Polish and other semispeculative issues attracting attention. The remainder of the list was mixed."

Sentiment Again Disturbed.

Renewed selling of several recently active industrial favorites again unsettled the stock market, and prices showed a tendency to continue downward in spite of spasmodic rallies. Pressure was in the call money rate, probably reflecting preparations for month-end settlements, revived reports that redoubtable rates in Philadelphia and Boston might be marked up within a short time. Moreover, the increasing demand for funds for commercial issues made it clear that speculative operations in the remainder of the year would have to be conducted with greater care. Although rail shares received fairly good support and several individual specialties attracted attention with advances, the general trend was toward lower levels. Eyes fairly cheerful trade reviews in the steel industry failed to check selling pressure against U. S. Steel.

Prof. Ripley's Article.

"Discussions of Prof. Ripley's article on corporation earnings statements in the forthcoming issue of the Atlantic monthly were numerous. But traders took little stock in the suggestion that the article was instrumental in unsettling the market. They pointed out that the article was overdue, and that the setback in prices simply coincided with an announcement of the Ripley article. Of greater influence on prices was continued liquidation of long line by traders determined to take profits before Labor Day. Moreover, speculation for the decline has expanded considerably in the last week."

Sterling Is Lower.

Continued selling of sterling provided the only development of interest in the foreign exchange market. Pressure was not heavy, but the rate on London eased off another fraction to $4.85 1/2. French franc and lire also showed improvement, an uptick of 3 points being recorded in rates on Paris."

Rally in Commodities.

"Prices in the principal commodity markets rallied before the end of the session, wheat closing around the level at which it had for net advances of about 1/2 bushel. Corn was slightly higher. Cotton worked forward again."

Financial and Industrial Briefs

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.

A sudden demand for General Motors, which crossed 208 on a large volume of buying, checked the selling movement in the last hour on the Stock Exchange and brought a bout recoveries of 1 to 5 points in several issues. Rails took a new lease of life on the announcement that a special meeting of Delaware and Hudson stockholders had been called for Oct. 26 to consider a plan for the segregation of the coal properties.

The American Shipbuilding Co.

The company declared a dividend of 1 1/2 per cent on its common stock, payable Nov. 1 to stockholders of record Oct. 15, and a dividend of 2 per cent payable Nov. 1 to stock of record Oct. 15.

Net earnings of the Philadelphia Co.

and affiliated corporations for the seven months this year were $1,253,283, after depreciation and taxes, before interest and other deductions, compared with $1,022,243 in the preceding corresponding period.

The increasing use of electricity in industrial operations and the integration of public utility electric plants are outstanding developments in the electric power field, says the National Bureau of Commerce in New York. Sixty per cent of American industry already is electrified and manufacturers show a growing disposition to purchase electric power rather than to generate it themselves in private plants.

Dillon, Read & Co., which recently headed a syndicate which sold the American fund $25,000,000 of United States Brazil 6 1/2 per cent external fund bonds, announced the call for redemption of $250,000 of these bonds. Those designated are payable Oct. 1 at 100 against the issue price of 90. The redemption representing an aggregate profit of $25,000 in less than six months to the holders whose bonds are to be redeemed.

The Tennessee Electric Power Co.

will receive $24,500 of its 6 1/2 per cent debentures at par and interest.

SHARES SOLD

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Total sales, 1,716,000 shares, compared with 1,608,000 yesterday. 1,807,000 shares were sold in 1925. Total sales from Jan. 1 to Aug. 25, 1926, 1,716,000 shares, compared with 2,657,780 a year ago.

The Man on the Sandbox

by L. Davis

BON VOYAGE, GEORGE.

WE notice by a late report Where Uncle Sammy will depart Our old friend Uncle Remus. The Labor Bureau has a plan To decorate him with a can Unless he should outshine us.

For dealing in illicit rum And making an enormous sum, He'll be expatriated; But George says Uncle's attitude Is one of base ingratitude And won't be tolerated.

Good citizens who craved a dram Without consent of Uncle Sam, With George would have to dick-er; From which premise we may con-clude That there's no moral turpitude In selling good red liquor.

IN ECLIPSE.

Having outlived his usefulness as a star witness, George's star has set and even the moonshine isn't what it used to be.

George's transition from a jack-leg to a bootleg lawyer was spectacular in the extreme. Then the fun began.

"Police Looking For Banilli Find Liquor." You're even liable to run across a case while looking for a needle in a haystack.

About the only place you can't find liquor is in a Government warehouse.

"Death Caused by Swallowing False Teeth." Looks like an inside job.

See where King George, who has been hunting with the Duke of Devonshire, bought a half interest in a rabbit. Indicating that His Majesty didn't have much luck with his gun.

SPORT OF KINGS.

Bye, oh, Baby Bunting. The King has gone a hunting. No rabbit falling to his aim He bought half interest in the same.

TOO TRUE.

Rain may fall on the just and the unjust, but you never can tell where a local shower is going to fall.

Remember three or four years ago when the new wood block paving on Washington avenue west of Jefferson was dedicated with speeches by the Mayor and others? It ought to last a couple more years.

The man on the sandbox says if the City, instead of spending money in paving streets with wood blocks, would take it down to the river and throw it to the fiances they could get rid of it quicker that way.

"U. S. Send 300 Shiploads of Coal to Great Britain." Carrying coals to Newcastle as the feller says.

If the Cards win the pennant, they'll have to play the world's series in double headers to fill the park, according to last Sunday's attendance.

"St. Louis Typos Defeat New York." Superior "stick" work did it.

BOND IS REFUSED TO 2 MEN HELD IN HALL-MILLS CASE

Supreme Court Justice declines to Release Will Stevens and Henry Carpenter From Jail.

PROSECUTOR TELLS OF FRESH EVIDENCE

Says Finger Prints on Car on Slain Rector's Body Correspond to Those of One Defendant.

By the Associated Press. SOMERVILLE, N. J., Aug. 24.—Justice Parker of the New Jersey Supreme Court today refused to admit to bail Henry de la B. Carpenter and Willie Stevens, held as accomplices in the murder of the Rev. Edward J. Hall and his choir singer, M. Eleanor Mills.

A card which was on the body of the Rev. Dr. Hall when it was found with that of his choir singer Sept. 16, 1925, is in the possession of the State and fingerprint on it correspond to those of one of the three persons held for the murder, according to State Senator Alexander Simpson, special prosecutor at the hearing today.

Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, the slain rector's widow, is at liberty on $15,000 bond, charged with the murders. Stevens, her eccentric brother, and Carpenter, a cousin, are held in jail as her accomplices.

At a preliminary hearing last week, County Judge Cleary ruled that a prima facie case had been made out against Carpenter and Stevens and held them without bail.

Plea Referred to Parker. Defense counsel appeared before Chief Justice Gummers at Newark on Monday to apply for bail, but he declined to hear the application on the ground that it should be made to Justice Parker. Justice Parker came here from Northeast Harbor, Me., to hear the plea.

Justice Parker ruled that no further evidence could be submitted either by the prosecution or the defense. He said the evidence already in his possession was quite sufficient.

Robert H. McCarter of defense counsel, in his opening statement declared that he intended to show that "proofs in this case are as flimsy and absurd that in our judgment it will not stand the test of the rule."

McCarter reviewed the history of the case and dwelt on the part the press played in the original investigation four years ago. "Four years ago," he declared, "after several weeks of investigation by the grand jury turned the case down. The State might have presented new evidence to the grand jury instead of taking Mrs. Hall from her bed and picking up the two men later, but that would not have been sensational enough."

Offers Alibi Affidavit. An affidavit of J. Carter Rice of Highland Park, New Brunswick, which stated that Carpenter and his wife were at Rice's home from 7 to 10:30 o'clock the night the murders were committed was introduced. The rector and the choir singer were slain between 9 and 10 o'clock the night of Sept. 16, 1922.

Carpenter and Stevens were escorted into court under guard soon after McCarter began his argument. They appeared at ease. Simpson stated that he would require only half an hour for his argument. Facing Carpenter, who appeared very unconcerned, Simpson shouted:

"Dr. Hall was killed trying to save a woman. I can demonstrate that Stevens was at the scene of the murders, that he was near the bodies and that he placed the card on Dr. Hall's foot."

Supreme Court Rejects APPEAL OF BOOKMAKER Refuses Habeas Corpus to Man Accused of Accepting Bet on St. Joseph (Mo.) Horse Race.

By the Associated Press. JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 24.— writ of habeas corpus by which J. Plotell of St. Joseph sought gain freedom from a State chair of recording horse racing bets was denied yesterday by the Missouri Supreme Court, en banc. The Court ordered Plotell remanded to the custody of the Buchanan County Sheriff.
